

Celebrate TP Elementary at Community Open House

By Betsy Porst, Mariemont Schools

There's history in the making at Terrace Park Elementary (TPE), and all residents are encouraged to take part. On Saturday, March 19, TPE will welcome one and all to a Community Open House from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. This event will give everyone – students, parents, residents, staff and alumni - the opportunity to tour the current building just prior to its renovation...and to have some TPE fun.

With the theme of celebrating TPE's past, present and future, you'll have the chance to:

- Reminisce with classic school memorabilia from the Terrace Park Historical Society and Terrace Park Alumni Association.
- Tour this year's TPE Student Art Show (traditionally held in May) - in

The current elementary school full display in the cafeteria.

- Join in art projects to be hung in the transitional and permanent buildings. Bring a necktie to add to a community creation. (And add your wishes to a special keepsake for retiring teacher, Bob Fleckenstein).

- Get a sneak peek at a modular classroom.
- Contribute your thoughts to the TPE Time Capsule to give future generations a true sense of TPE 2011.
- Enjoy lunch out by purchasing pizza and beverages from TP Boy Scouts and sweet treats from TP Daisies, Brownies and Girl Scouts.
- Learn fun TPE facts from 6th Grade Historians.
- Enjoy student musical performances.
- See into TPE's future by viewing new building, site and design plans.

Spread the word to all friends of TPE. It will truly be a community event as we celebrate the heart of the park – Terrace Park Elementary.

If you have school memorabilia to share, contact Lisi George at 831-1255.

Questions? Call Melanie Stutenroth at 576-9824.

Nate Wagner earns Eagle rank

By Katie Morgan

Nate Wagner, 16, of Terrace Park recently earned the title of Eagle Scout after completing his Eagle Scout project and getting approval from the National Boy Scouts of America.

For his Eagle Scout project, Wagner chose to make some improvements to Lindell Memorial Park, known to Terrace Park locals as the log cabin. With the help of about 50 people, Wagner replaced utility poles and put new gravel into the parking lot at the log cabin. He also rebuilt the fire pit behind the cabin with new paver stones and finally cleared out brush and weeds to create a new picnic area.

"As a scout, the log cabin has always been important to me so I chose to spruce it up as my Eagle Scout project," Wagner said.

However, the project began much before Wagner and 50 others put in the time and labor in September. Wagner developed a plan that was approved by the Village of Terrace Park and the Boy Scouts of America.

"I had to get estimates on materials then write letters to get funding for the project," Wagner said.

Wagner received donations from organizations and individuals such as Aker Electric, Lowes, Ogle Annett, Steve Wilson, George Heffner, Duke Energy, Barb and Les Overway, and Marc Michaelson to name a few.

Once finished with the entire project, Wagner had to get approval from Bill McNeese, the District Advancement Chair for the Blue Jacket District of Dan Beard Council and had to submit recommendations from parents, teachers and employers and prove he had earned at least 21 merit badges.

Scoutmaster Kokoruda and Eagle Scout Wagner

Wagner has been a member of the Cub Scouts/Boy Scouts in Terrace Park since he was in first grade.

"I've really enjoyed working with my scoutmaster Mr. Kokoruda because of his great sense of humor and constant dedication to our troop," Wagner said. "It's also been really cool to spend quality time with my dad when he was my scout leader."

February TP Village Council

By Neil Kruger

Mayor Jay Gohman proclaimed January 28th "Sonny James Day." Sonny managed the Terrace Park United Dairy Farmers for 18 years. The mayor appreciated her caring and watchful eye on the TP youth.

MM Mine update

Robert Malloy, solicitor, reported that Judge Martin assigned the Martin Marietta consolidated cases appeal to Magistrate Bachman who made his ruling. Objections to Bachman's decision were filed by TP and others. Judge Martin disqualified himself. Judge Ruehlman is now assigned to the case. Currently there are no hearing dates.

Streets

Chief Gerald Hayhow reported that TP has used 175 tons of salt on streets to date. The Chief is working with the school construction committee and traffic patterns may change around the school. An "ALL CALL" recorded message will be sent to residents explaining the street changes during construction.

Fire and Life Squad

Fire Chief Luke Frey, wants to recruit new Fire Department volunteers. Please call Frey and get (continued on page 7)

Distribution Coordinator Needed!

The Village Views is seeking a Distribution Coordinator.

Responsibilities include:

- Supervising the assembly of the Village Views at the Community Building
- Transporting paper to Post Office. Must be able to lift heavy boxes/mail bins.
- 1 1/2 hour preparation at home
- Maintain mailing list

Interested? Please call Leslie Jones @ 831-2643 for more information.

Celebrate Mr. F's retirement!

While enjoying the TP Elementary School Community Open House on Saturday, March 19, be sure to stop by between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. to reminisce and say goodbye to retiring teacher Bob Fleckenstein.

TP UDF icon retires

January 28, 2011 was officially proclaimed "Sonny James Day" in Terrace Park by Mayor Jay Gohman from inside the warmth of Day's United Dairy Farmers home for the last 11 years. UDF customers from the surrounding communities of Terrace Park, Indian Hill and Milford filled the store that Friday morning to say good-bye to this Terrace Park icon and thank her for her service and the genuine love she shared for her customers, their children, and even their pets.

Sonny is retiring from UDF after 17 years with the company to reside in the country with her seven dogs. She plans on catching up with her sewing and to spend more time with her grandchildren.

While initially speechless, Sonny somehow found the words to let everyone know how much she has enjoyed working in the Terrace Park community and thanked those in attendance "for letting me be me."

Sonny surrounded by just a few of the many UDF patrons who grew to know and love her during her time spent in Terrace Park.

TP Boy Scouts -- Eagle Scout, Scout Sunday and mulch sale

By Alec Ahrens, Troop Scribe

Nathan Wagner- a local scout who many may recognize from his performances on the Mariemont High School swim team, Student Council, and during the many volunteer activities he is often seen taking part in - was recently awarded the rank of Eagle Scout from the Boy Scouts of America at a Court of Honor that took place at St. Thomas Episcopal Church (see related article). This ceremony started with a posting of the colors and then the reading of the Scout Oath and Law, both of which represented why Nate was awarded such a high honor; his dedication to the moral principles of a Scout really demonstrate his worthiness of the award. Next was a speech by Dennis Kokoruda, the Troop Scoutmaster, whose kind words about Nate also explained the requirements that it takes to become an Eagle Scout. His speech highlighted Nate’s qualities of leadership, integrity, morality, and general goodwill that enabled him to receive the award. Also the Court of Honor included a “Scout Minute” and a “Parent of Scout Minute” where Nate and his family let the audience know about how much work it took for him to make it to Eagle Scout and Nate’s parents expressed their sincerest pride in all his accomplishments. In all, the community should be very proud of Nate and all his achievements. He’s managed to balance a hectic social and school life with all the responsibilities of a Scout and a true friend to all in the community. We’re all very proud of you, Nate!

Scout Sunday

BSA Troop 286 and Pack 97 celebrated Scout Sunday on February 6 at St. Thomas Church, sponsoring organization for scouts in Terrace Park. This annual event recognizes the contributions of young people and adults to Scouting. The troop and pack would like to thank Father Darren Elin and the members of the church for their welcome and support.

After the church service, scouts canvassed the community to collect food for the St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry in Milford in the “Fill-the-Trailer” campaign. This campaign was spearheaded by the younger scouts in the troop and supervised by parents, Mindy Wagner and Sherry Holcomb. Over 1,000 pounds of food was collected to help support needy families in our area; so the Scouts would like to say a big thank you to all who donated food items!

Annual Mulch Sale

Starting in early February, community members will have seen many Scouts outdoors selling mulch to residents. The mulch sale is the major fund raiser that the Boy Scouts do every year, which helps to defray membership costs to be in the Scouts as well as allowing Scouts to attend camp and purchase camping supplies. It’s also a great activity in leadership and people skills which are two integral parts to being in Scouting. Community members: please help the Scouts by buying mulch or making a donation this spring. It would be much appreciated!

TP Creatives Collection showcases local talent

By Sue Porter, tphistoricalsociety.org

The Terrace Park Historical Society’s TP Creatives initiative that was introduced in 2010 has already amassed an entirely new collection for the archives and its newly constructed gallery.

Artists, authors, photographers, poets, illustrators and many other creative people who reside or have resided in Terrace Park were invited by the archives team to donate samples of their work for a permanent display. The search continues for names of more creative residents and former residents. Those who have donated or committed to donate as of February include:

- Photographers: Jim Rauth, Tom Rogowski and Becca Worple;
- Authors: Joe Rouse, Louise Borden, Patti Normile, Camilla Warrick donated by Paul Gibby, and Lisa Stickney donated by Dave Berger;
- Poets: Ruth Binkley Rauth donated

by Jim Rauth;

- Artists: Gayle Gillette Hummel, Gail Morrison “Gaia,” Claudette Graulich, Amy Evans, Rosell Shundich, Mark Eberhard, Ken Norvell donated by Susan Frank, Ken Norvell donated by Leslie Jones, Stan Thomson donated by Leslie Jones, Sally Stollmaier Vianello, Elaine Fening, Carol B. Cole, Francesca Padjen and Chandi Findley;
- Illustrators: Will Hillenbrand and John Maggard;
- Sculptor/artist: Stan Thomson;
- Ceramics: Erin Rosson;
- Craftsperson: Jeanette MacMillan Pruiess;
- Wood carver/handcrafter: Joanne Kennedy and Joanne Kennedy’s “Father Christmas” donated by Leslie Jones;

Second graders welcome special pen pal

By Carol C. Cole

Teacher Maria Child's 2nd grade class at Terrace Park Elementary received a welcomed visit from a very special pen pal last week: US Army Specialist Amie Bauer. Bauer is from North Carolina and is the cousin of a Terrace Park parent, Melissa Cooper.

The class began sending her letters while she was stationed in Afghanistan. She came home last month and wanted to visit the students to thank them in person for thinking of her. The class is now writing letters to her brother who is stationed in Iraq.

US Army Specialist Amie Bauer visits with her pen pals in Maria Child's 2nd grade classroom.

Garden Club News

By Linda Swensson

The members and guests of the Terrace Park Garden Club enjoyed an evening of fellowship and gardening education on February 1 at the Community building. Steve Smith from Camargo Landscaping taught the group the correct techniques for pruning and informed them of invasive plant material in Ohio.

Five Terrace Park teens 2011 National Merit finalists

The National Merit Scholarship Program has announced students from across the nation that have advanced to finalist standing in the competition for Merit Scholarship awards to be offered in 2011. Five Terrace Park teens that made the list are Baldur Tangvald from Cincinnati Country Day School and Conor Coyan, Andrew Gorman, Erin Purcell, and Hillary Purcell from Mariemont High School.

The application process for finalist standing is a rigorous one whereby semifinalists must show evidence of academic excellence, extracurricular involvement, and consistent achievement both in the classroom and on the SAT test. In addition to acquiring the endorsement of their school, semifinalists must also write an essay about their interests, accomplishments, plans and goals.

These five students join the group of approximately 15,000 National Merit Semifinalists who advanced to the Finalist level in the 2011 competition. Approximately half of the finalists will win Merit Scholarship awards and be honored as Merit Scholar designees. Notification of scholarship awards will be made in one of three announcements in April, May, or July.

TPHS is celebrating!! 2011 is our 10th Anniversary and in honor of this event we invite you to join us for our March 6th program on Conservation Techniques, our May 30th Open House at our new Gallery, and our birthday party planned for early next fall. We thank you for your support and hope you will help us celebrate this special year!

History tour of Terrace Park

By Leland M. Cole, www.tpsurvey.org

The Terrace Park Building Survey website (www.tpsurvey.org) now has a history (walking) tour of the Village. As many know, there are interesting houses and locations of interest scattered throughout the Village. Some of them have been included in this tour of the Village. Initially the plan was to prepare a walking tour, but it was changed to a history tour as the route became longer.

The route has been divided into 6 sections based on their location:

1. Park Avenue, Village Green and Nearby Areas

2. Upper Elm Avenue
3. Lower Elm Avenue

4. Wooster Pike

5. Indian Hill Road and Wooster Pike
6. Miami Avenue and Edgewater

There are 55 points of interest along the route. Details of each site can be found on the www.tpsurvey.org website. We hope residents will take the opportunity to learn more about the background and history of their village.

A brochure is also available and is available at the Village office and other locations.

Open Your Heart was feast of Love for Stepping Stones

By Peggy Kreimer

A sell-out crowd of 250 feasted on filet mignon and Black Tie scallops at the third annual Open Your Heart for Stepping Stones Valentine dinner at Eddie Merlot's on Feb. 8.

The evening was a feast of romantic gestures, from wine toasts to a gallery of love-inspired original paintings to his-and-her raffle prizes, all creating one huge Valentine for Stepping Stones Center's programs for children and adults with disabilities. On each table, guests found fortune cookies filled with words of love by everyone from Shakespeare to Doris Day. Silver hearts held photos of Stepping Stones participants.

Police report

Police initiated a traffic stop on Wooster Pike after observing a vehicle improperly turning right on a red light. After initially giving a false name, the driver admitted that he was driving under suspension. After being informed that he was being detained, the driver asked the officer to retrieve his cell phone from his car. Upon entering the vehicle, the officer observed drug paraphernalia in the car, which the driver eventually admitted was his. The driver was processed, issued citations, and transported to his residence.

While on patrol, police observed a vehicle stopped in the middle of the road. Upon approaching the vehicle, police observed the driver passed out in the driver's seat. Police roused the driver, who was extremely confused. The driver could not get the door of his car open and had difficulty putting the car in park. After nearly reversing into the police cruiser, the driver finally managed to park and exit the vehicle. After administering field sobriety tests, the driver was arrested for Operating a Vehicle under the Influence. Additionally, police found drug paraphernalia in the driver's car. After failing a breath test, the driver was cited and transported to his residence.

A resident on Wrenwood reported people yelling in the middle of the street. After surveying the area, police found two people standing in the street, one of whom had slurred speech and the odor of alcohol on his breath. The impaired person admitted to being under the age of 21 and to drinking all day. He was cited for underage consumption and transported to his residence.

Police initiated a traffic stop for a headlight out. Upon approaching the vehicle, police detected an odor of marijuana. A routine check of the driver's license revealed that it had been suspended. After the driver exited the vehicle, police observed drug paraphernalia in the car. Upon obtaining the driver's consent to search the vehicle, police discovered marijuana in the vehicle. The driver was cited for Driving Under Suspension, Possession of Marijuana, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and released.

After observing a vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed, police initiated a traffic stop on Wooster Pike. While talking to the driver, police noticed that he seemed confused. Furthermore, the drivers' speech was slurred, and police noticed an odor of alcohol. Upon further questioning, the driver became more confused. Police administered field sobriety tests. The driver was arrested for Operating a Vehicle under the Influence. After failing a breath test, the driver was cited and released to his father.

Police also responded to a report of road rage, a loose dog, vehicle lockouts, lost/stolen property, a traffic accident, a frozen fire hydrant, a flooded basement, a stranded motorist, a disabled vehicle, and numerous properties found open.

Terrace Park Police provided assistance to the Norwood Police Department in the execution of warrants and to the Mariemont Police Department with a domestic disturbance.

There were six EMS runs in January.

Student photographers honored in arts competition

Three Mariemont High School freshmen were honored in this year's regional Scholastic Art and Writing Awards competition. All three received recognition in the category of photography.

Cole Stewart received the competition's highest award, the Gold Key.

Sam Vearil was awarded the Silver Key, and Ariel Harvat was named as Honorable Mention.

Stewart's photograph will now advance to the national level in New York City in this competition sponsored by the Alliance for Young Artists & Writers.

Mariemont High School student photographers Cole Stewart, Sam Vearil and Ariel Harvat won honors in the regional Scholastic Arts and Writing Awards competition.

To the editor:

To residents of Terrace Park:

The Boy Scouts wanted to share this thank you note they received from St. Vincent De Paul thanking them for their work on a recent food drive. Without the help of the community, the Boy Scouts' efforts would not have succeeded.

To: Terrace Park Boy Scout Troop

Thank you for the huge amount of food you collected and donated to St. Andrew Parish St. Vincent de Paul Society. This food will be distributed to families in the Milford area who do not have enough to eat.

Not only did you collect the food, you even helped sort and stock the shelves of our food pantry!

Thank you again for taking on such a project to help others.

involved. John Maggard Life Squad Chief reported six EMS runs since the beginning of the year. The current EMS class is progressing well.

Village Trees

Councilman Jeff Krueger, buildings and grounds, reported that 98 percent of tree removals is completed. Stump removals and planting will resume as the ground thaws. A resolution was passed reappointing Randy Haller as Village Arborist with a slight pay increase.

Insurance

Councilman Mark Porst, finance, reported that the Village liability and fire insurance policy renewed. Even though the premium increased $3,000 dollars, this is a government policy and the price is considered reasonable. Porst discussed the renewal of a 5.58 mil operating levy that will be on the November 2011 ballot. Work on this is well ahead of schedule.

Wooster Pike Project

Councilman Jim Muennich, Public Works, presented a resolution to pay the balance of $16,500 for the Village's 20 percent share for the Wooster Pike Project. Ohio Department of Transportation is paying 80 percent of the project. The bidding process begins April 7 and the work begins this summer.

Safety Equipment and Coyotes

Councilman Stefan Olson, public safety, is working with the Fire Department updating safety equipment. Also keep an eye out as two coyotes were spotted on Miami Avenue. Please keep watch over small pets.

Learn conservation techniques

It's happened to just about everyone. We open a file of precious memories only to find photos and documents that have deteriorated with age, sometimes beyond recognition or usefulness.

The Terrace Park Historical Society knows there's a better way and has invited conservator Charles Price to its next public meeting to demonstrate alternatives.

The event – Sunday, March 6, at the Community Building - begins at 3:30 p.m. with socialization and a session for children on scrapbooking and creating keepsakes. A business meeting follows at 4 p.m., followed at 4:15 p.m. by the presentation, "Beyond Storage: How to Preserve Valuables and Keepsakes." It's all free and open to the public.

"This will be a hands-on learning experience," said Elaine Fening, TPHS program chair. "People are invited to bring paper-based items of historical significance – prints, etchings, watercolors or books, for example – that are not bound or framed. Our guest professional will evaluate the items and recommend conservation methods."

During his 23-year tenure at the Archival Conservation Center, Price has done work for individuals, galleries, public and private libraries, county courts, historical societies and various organizations. His projects have included Audubon folios and prints, Picasso watercolor and etchings, Hurley etchings, Henry Farney pastels and historical documents by Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson, Ulysses S. Grant and Napoleon. Personal documents from the Civil War, marriage, birth and death certificates and family books have also benefited from his preservation techniques.

The 2011 Lacrosseville Preseason Report

By Lon Stirsman, Sports Editor

As spring approaches the Terrace Park Bulldogs are preparing for their 15th season of youth lacrosse. Once again, Coach Steve Peterson and his dedicated staff of assistants will be working with approximately 70 boys from Terrace Park, Mariemont and Fairfax. The boys play their home games at

The 2010 MHS Alumni Game was the 7th in the series that started in 2004, and this is a must-see event for some lacrosse fans as it pits members of the current high school team against any alumni of the program who show up for the game. This year's alums may have been less rusty than competitive alums for extended game play fell on deaf ears as they lobbied Coach P. The alumni lead the series 4-3, as the high school squad has made the series competitive by winning the last two years. The scoring leaders for each team tallied three goals, with Noah Gibby leading the alums and

The Alumni Game Crew.

Drackett Field on four teams based on age and experience.

The Bulldogs are the foundation of the very successful boys'/men's lacrosse program in our community. Many of the boys develop a love for the game as Bulldogs, and then carry on the local lacrosse tradition as they leave elementary school to become the core members of the Mariemont Junior and Senior high school teams. The junior high and junior varsity teams routinely are among the best in the city. The Warriors have gone to the state finals three times since becoming a varsity program in 2002, and the 2007 team won the state championship.

Each year on Thanksgiving Weekend, Coach P hosts a new player clinic for Bulldogs to be, and then refs the Warrior Alumni Game at Stanton Field. The most recent clinic had about 20 boys from grades 2-5 participating. A good time was had by all during the fun learning experience, and several of the youngsters stayed afterwards to join the crowd to watch the Alumni Game.

those in the past as nine of them continue to play the game at the college level. These guys currently play on Division 1 and club teams at Alabama, UC, James Madison, Miami, Minnesota-Duluth, Ohio State, Ohio University, and Roanoke.

Each and every one of the participants in this year's game began playing lacrosse as Bulldogs. Each team fielded a squad of approximately 20 players. Six sets of brothers played for one side or the other: Chase and Jimmy Beach; Cole and Tate DeCamp; Phil and Chris Egasti; Owen and Noah Gibby; Reed and Drake Peterson; Sean and Nick Stirsman. The program sends a shout-out to the parents of these and every other Bulldogs and Warriors player...thanks for your continued support!

This year's game was as fun as any in the series. As the program continues to mature and consistently achieve success at the state level, more accomplished players develop and graduate. As a result, the alumni enter each year's contest more and more confident of victory. As a parent of a 2008 grad and witness to all seven games, I can firmly attest to this. This year's alums wanted this one badly, as the loss suffered to the high schoolers last year apparently still stings some.

The most senior member of the alumni this year was Bill Dunning, from the MHS class of 2002. The sides seemed to be evenly matched with excellent play demonstrated by both squads. At halftime the game was tied 6-6. But the youth and energy of the younger players may have been the determining factor, as they wore down some of the older guys in the second half and won the game 10-8. Pleas by one or two of the more

Chase Beach the MHS squad.

One of the things I look forward to watching is the freshmen who play in this event for the first time with the significantly older and much more experienced players. This year saw three as Sam Torpedo Long (who actually played some goal for the alumni until their goalies rolled out of bed and got to the field), Jimbo Perry, and Big Mac Saffin announced their presence with authority.

This year's crowd was the largest, loudest, and most enthusiastic yet. Part of that may be attributable to the tailgating that took a quantum leap forward with a buffet line featuring grilled pork sandwiches afterwards.

The 2011 Bulldogs will be entertaining to watch, and Bulldogs are always well-coached and learn to respect the game and their opponents. Watching them play down at Drackett is a great way to spend an hour or so on a Sunday afternoon.

The Warriors varsity lost to the state champs in the final four last year, and made it to the state championship game the year before that. The 2011 squad is poised and situated to make a run with numerous boys gaining all-state recognition. They have strong team leadership, a deep senior class, a talented junior class, and outstanding coaches. Circle June 4th on your calendar, and I'll be looking for you in the stands up in Columbus.

Monte Carlo Night hits home run for TPRC Sports

By Terrace Park Recreation Committee www.tprc.net

The 8th annual Terrace Park Recreation Committee (TPRC) Monte Carlo Night (MCN) fund raiser for Terrace Park sports programs was held on Friday, January 28 at St Thomas Church. Event Chairperson, Celia McNeil orchestrated her third TPRC MCN and had the evening packed with fun activities.

The fund raiser traditionally has been a large contributor to the annual budget for the TPRC programs and this year's turnout was spectacular, setting a record for money available to support our maintenance, capital improvements and programs that are home to Drackett Field.

This year live music was added by local residents, Robinson Circus, who stoked the crowd surveying the bid-n-buy auction items and entertaining those who were settled at the various gambling tables. A very special chartered bus trip of scenic and historic downtown Cincinnati destinations was also offered by our friends Neil and Suzie Bortz to the first 20 couples to sign up. Many awesome donations and gift baskets were donated by various TP families. Incredible!

Also new this year was a wine tasting offered by Valley Vineyards, located in Morrow, Ohio for those wanting to sample some local grapes. Valley Vineyards is a family run winery that offers 13 different varieties of wine that is right up I-71 from Terrace Park. Wine Enthusiasts be sure to check them out.

Once the gambling subsided and the bid-n-buy closed, TPRC baseball Commish, Todd Steele, grabbed the microphone for what proved to be a very entertaining live auction. Former Terrace Park residents Paqui and Brian Kelly donated Notre Dame basketball, hockey and football tickets. The Joneses and Janceks gifted UC football and basketball tickets, a signed basketball and football and some UC athletic apparel items. The Brenneman's were also in the mix donating a sweet Cincinnati Reds Diamond Ticket package with on-field batting practice access and time in the booth with Marty and Thom. Spirited bidding kept the crowd guessing while basketball commish, Bren Fries masqueraded as Mark Kennedy (in absentia) and did a skillful job of winning the Kennedys some special items. TP entertainment at its finest.

The final event of the evening was the raffle for the ever-popular TPRC golf cart. This year's lucky winner was Patricia and Marvin Lopez! After a quick phone call to Stanton Avenue, Patricia arrived to accept her prize in her robe and pajamas (does it get any better?). Patricia accepted the keys and headed home (obeying all the proper traffic laws, of course) to put their new prize in the garage.

Special thanks to Emily, Steve and Jamie (aka Robinson Circus), the Bortzs, the Kellys, the Joneses, the Brennemanns, the various donors and sponsors who put together such wonderful items and to all of you that attended who made this such a great evening and a record-setting event for the TPRC!

Lastly, Celia McNeil is retiring (after three years of chairperson for the Summer Fun Program and two years of MCN) and looking for a special volunteer (or two, or three) who will jump in the boat and row next year's event. If you, someone you know, or someone you'd like to volunteer for this awesome event is interested, please contact Celia to inquire about details. Thanks to Celia for all her hard work and energy.

Thanks to all who had a part in this year's party!
