

September Council meeting

By Vivian Krueger

Mayor Jay Gohman opened the meeting with a moment of silence in memory of the 9/11 victims with a special remembrance of Douglas Cherry, the brave helpers and all who were affected by the tragic event.

Gohman noted the passing of Al Nelson. Nelson was a friend of many and did wonderful service for TP.

The dedication of TP Elementary School was September 9 and celebrated the completion of the largest building project in TP history.

Gohman thanked residents for welcoming Olympian Nick Thoman and Chief Hayhow for organizing the motorcade. Thoman greeted residents for three hours at the Community House and allowed photo opportunities while holding his gold and silver medals.

Mayor Gohman reminded residents that one political sign (2' x 3') for each candidate may be placed no closer than 5' from the street and not in the right of way. Read on-line or call the Village office for the signage building code. Check with John Hester, building inspector, before starting any home improvements.

Public Safety

Councilman Stefan Olson, Public Safety, presented a resolution for the appointment of Tyler Eccard to the TP Volunteer Fire Department and the Volunteer Emergency Medical Services. Tyler was sworn in by and thanked by Mayor Gohman for volunteering.

Martin Marietta

Robert Malloy, Solicitor, reported he is waiting for the Martin Marietta decision from the Court of Appeals that was heard August 22.

He reported giving information to Tom Tepe, Planning and Zoning, about short term house rentals.

Life Squad and Fire Department

John Maggard, Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Chief, reported seven EMS runs since August 1 and 81 EMS runs to date this year. An EMS class will begin September 26 with seven recruits. All residents are encouraged to join this class. Recent EMS training included pediatrics and severe trauma procedures.

Fire Chief Luke Frey reported assisted Milford with a moderate brush fire near the river. A Facebook page at "Terrace Park Volunteer Emergency Services" with Fire/EMS activities and news has been set up. Call Luke at 615-6750 to join the 35 members of the fire department volunteers are always needed.

Police and Streets

Police Chief and Street Commissioner Jerry Hayhow reported recent thefts of cell phones from cars parked at UDF. Even for quick shopping, residents should lock the car.

The maintenance staff is splitting firewood daily. Residents may call the Village office to have the gate unlocked to pick up wood.

Chief Hayhow is pleased with the repaving work on Indian Hill Rd.

Planning and Zoning

Councilman Tom Tepe, Planning and Zoning, urged residents to be patient with the completion of the elementary school. There are still many details to finish.

Robert Malloy is checking into the business regulation versus residential rules concerning short term rentals. The community will

TPE officially opens new school

Submitted by Josephine McKenrick

On Sunday, September 9, Terrace Park Elementary School celebrated the official opening of its new school building.

"Just as the building process was a collaboration, the dedication ceremony involved the particopened the ceremony with colors and about 50 Terrace Park students in grades 1-5 sang "The Future Begins with Us." Third grader Henry Buck won a drawing and received the ribbon-cutting honor, and looked very dapper and offiipation of community members, the Board of Education, construction representatives, volunteers, students and staff, and village officials," said Paul Imhoff, superintendent of Mariemont City Schools. "I know the new building, and all of the educational advancements and achievements that will occur within the school walls, will exemplify our motto 'Scholars of Today. Leaders of Tomorrow.'"

There were about 375 people in attendance, including many community members and former district parents, and it seemed all were excited to see the new building. The boy and cub scouts cial in his bow tie.

Former Mariemont Board of Education members Jo Lakeman, Kevin Grimmer and Rick Koehler attended and were recognized. Also, Imhoff led a moment of silence for Al Nelson, a supportive community member who passed away.

"The Terrace Park staff is thrilled and very grateful to be in our new school," said Linda Lee, Terrace Park Elementary School principal. "This year when school started, the original part of the building turned 99 years old. We are looking forward to using our new state-of-the-art facility to educate Terrace Park children for 99 more years!"

Laug honored at Bloom fund-raiser for Stepping Stones

Submitted by Peggy Kreimer

More than 400 guests enjoyed a perfect late summer evening garden party at the 8th annual Bloom for Stepping Stones fund-raiser on Sept. 8. Honoree for the evening was Connie Cook Laug of Terrace Park, who has served on Stepping Stones' board and helped originate and launch the highly successful Bloom event in 2005. This year the garden party/auction/dinner-by-the-bite/dance raised a record of more than $200,000 for Stepping Stones' programs for people with disabilities. Bloom was held at Parkmour in Indian Hill, the home of Doug and Beth Brendamour.

Master of Ceremony Nick Clooney championed the Stepping Stones mission while charming the crowd and posing for photos with admirers. The evening started with an exclusive patron party inside the home and moved to the outdoor tented party where 18 restaurants and caterers provided dinner by the bite.

The party has become a tradition with longtime Stepping Stones supporters and new friends. Guests included Sen. Rob Portman and his wife Jane. Sen. Portman volunteered at Stepping Stones as a teen and his mother was on the board. Platinum sponsor Kay Pettengill of Indian Hill was on the board with Portman's mother and he greeted her with an enthusiastic hug.

Stepping Stones is a United Way partner agency serving close to 1,000 children and adults with disabilities with programs including summer day and overnight camps, year-round adult and autism education programs, year-round overnight respites, Rachel Hamilton of Blue Ash, Honoree Connie Laug of Terrace Park, and Leslie Bailey of Hyde Park.

Norma Rashid of Ft. Thomas, and former Cincinnati Mayor Charlie Luken of Downtown Cincinnati, with Nina and Nick Clooney of Augusta, Ky. Nick Clooney was Bloom MC.

adventure trips for adults with disabilities and extracurricular activities for elementary and high school children with disabilities.

The agency started in 1963 and will celebrate its 50th anniversary in 2013.

Thank you for your support!

We at the Village Views would like to extend a huge thank you to our community. The outpouring of support in response to last month's call for donations will allow the paper to continue to keep you up to date on happenings in the park (including those pesky peacock invasions)! We've enjoyed the many notes of thanks and encouragement.

If you are interested in making a donation, please send a check payable to the Village Views to P.O. Box 212, Terrace Park, OH 45174.

Thank you!

They're back...

School is back in session. Please watch for children riding their bikes and walking to school.

Garden Club

By Amy Nisonger

The Terrace Park Garden Club met at the Community Building on September 4. After a light lunch and short business meeting, the group was introduced by Sue Dolan to Mary Ellen Peseck, our speaker. Sue met Mary Ellen at Cincinnati State where they both work. Mary Ellen shared with the members many new ideas for arrangements made from floral items and household items she had at her home in Rabbit Hash, Kentucky. Several arrangements were monochromatic, and natural items were used to provide support or the “mechanics” of holding a floral arrangement in place. The picture included here is of the table arrangement made by Garden Club member, Ellie Block. All the flowers and greens are from Ellie’s yard. You can see zinnias, dahlias, pachysandra and golden rod. It was a real inspiration to all the members.

The next meeting will be at noon on October 2 at the Community Building. Marvin Duren from Marvin’s Gardens in Lebanon will be discussing “Organic Gardening.” Meetings are open to the public.

It Takes A Village To Host a Tour
And TPHS Thanks Terrace Park!!

The Terrace Park Historical Society is proud to present its third biennial house tour
SUNDAY, SEPT. 30, 1-5 PM

The origin of the homes on our “Timeless Treasures” tour spans more than 150 years and tourists will see a reverence for historical details in each - from architectural design, to preservation, restoration, construction and even decoration.

THANK YOU HOMEOWNERS

Debra and Doug Burgess
Molly and Steve Cobb
Jill and Dan Freshley
Barbara and Tim Harth
Joddy and Matt Perry
Barb and Jack Smith

THANK YOU SPONSORS

Local residents and businesses have generously contributed to the tour, helping TPHS defray expenses.

ChainReactive - Tim Fening
Coldwell Banker/West Shell -
Mary Arkeilpane
Early’s Antiques & Auction Company -
Steve Early
Jane Yancey Architect
Michaelson Homes
Nationwide - Vivian and Jeff Krueger
Smith’s Camargo Landscape
Springwater Sweets and Flowers
TechneGraphics - Gregg MacMillan

THANK YOU ARTISTS & CRAFTERS

Adding luster to the event are local artisans, who will make their own “timeless treasures” available for sale on the Village Green.

THANKS FOR THE GOLF CARTS

You’ll also find golf carts - on loan from village residents - to shuttle those who need a lift to and from the houses.

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

None of this could happen without dozens of volunteers. To those who hung posters, distributed flyers and permitted us to place posters in their yards, sold tickets, provided historical information about the homes, and will serve as docents in the homes on tour day we offer our deepest gratitude.

THANK YOU TOURISTS

Finally, we want everyone who purchases a ticket to know how much we appreciate their support. Proceeds from this year’s tour will help make a professionally produced self-guided audio tour of Terrace Park available for accessing and downloading on the TPHS website.

Police Report

Police responded to a call from a clerk at UDF about a white male asking a group of children about lap dances. The clerk reported that the suspect drove toward Milford in a white van pulling a trailer. Police were unable to locate the subject. Upon questioning, the children described the subject as a white male around 50 years old wearing an orange shirt and a hat that had hair sewn into it. The children stated that the subject was not inappropriate and did not ask for lap dances. However, the children stated that the subject was acting strangely by dancing around and talking about selling novelty items. Upon questioning, the UDF clerk stated that there was another male subject in a different truck in an orange shirt that was talking with him and then drove away. Police determined that no offense had occurred. Police also responded to a barking dog, a bat in a home, a domestic dispute, and numerous properties found open. Terrace Park Police provided mutual aid to DEA.

Coyan named National Merit Semifinalist

Terrace Park resident Mara Coyan, a senior at Mariemont High School, has been named a National Merit Semifinalist. Fellow seniors Kit Carney and Sophie Erhardt also scored in the top one percent of the nearly 1.6 million students who took the Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) last fall.

“These young scholars, their families and their teachers are to be congratulated for this exemplary achievement,” said James Renner, Ph.D., Mariemont High School principal. “All of us in the Mariemont City Schools community are very proud of their outstanding accomplishment and wish them the best of luck as they progress through their senior year.”

Mara also runs cross country; she participated in Cappies, which is comprised of high school teams reviewing high school arts performances; and she plans on pursuing a college education fo-

According to the National Merit Scholarship Organization website, about 16,000 students, or approximately one-third of the 50,000 high scorers, are notified that they have qualified as Semifinalists. To ensure that academically talented young people from all parts of the United States are included in this talent pool, semifinalists are designated on a state representational basis.

Neighbor to Neighbor

Letters to the editor:

Martin Marietta Update

The following is a guest column submitted by the Terrace Park Environmental Group.

In early 2008 we first heard of Martin Marietta's (MM) attempt to gain a zoning permit from Anderson Township Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) that would allow them to use explosives to blast underground tunnels 400-800 feet deep for mining limestone. If approved, MM would set off an explosive round each workday—at the time our kids are walking to and/or from school and store 40,000 TONS of Ammonium Nitrate on their property (Timothy McVeigh needed a mere 40,000 POUNDS for the Oklahoma City bombing).

Thousands of pounds of explosives would be transported to the site on local roads past homes, stores and parks. Other negatives include: Fugitive dust and other air pollutants and all the health implications such as asthma; up to 500 truck trips (back and forth) a day; the noise of the rock crushers, conveyers and backup horns from equipment; potential for drinking water disruption through impacts to wells and cisterns; the detrimental effects on the environment, wildlife and the landscape. The permit, once granted, would be good for 50 years.

For the last two years the surrounding townships—Newtown, Terrace Park, Indian Hill, Mariemont and Milford -- fought the mine. We hired lawyers and called in expert witnesses. Certain members of the BZA would not be deterred. Despite the objections of every of their neighbors and surrounding school boards, they approved the permit 3 – 2, with 25 conditions.

In an effort to reverse the decision, Hamilton County Commissioners then denied MM permission to tunnel under Broadwell—a county road.

The surrounding areas appealed the decision and in the next round Judge Robert Ruehlman said the permit was null and void. The BZA never should have granted the permit, and he even called it “replete with examples of illegal acts.” Among them: permitting mining in a residential district; permitting storage of explosives; and accepting a $5 million “good neighbor fee” from the company for unspecified costs.

Since MM stands to make $50 million a year, they appealed to the Court of Appeals, which held a hearing on August 22nd. The Court concentrated their questions on the “Good Neighbor Fee” and the storage of explosives in a residential area. The judges said a “good neighbor fee” sounds like a tax, which the BZA has no authority to create. The judges also questioned whether the BZA had authority to grant a variance to store explosives on the property.

In the conditions of approval, the BZA said that because each condition is interrelated to others and necessary to ensure compliance that, “if any one or more conditions in this resolution is ... declared invalid, void or ineffective for any reason, this entire resolution granting ... approval shall be null and void and the matter remanded back to the BZA for further consideration.”

A decision on this appeal is not expected until at least October. The losing side could appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court, but the court has discretion on whether or not it will take the case.

Kindervelt announces new fund-raising focus

By Sarah Simmons

Kindervelt #76 of Terrace Park has announced a new focus for their fundraising efforts on behalf of Children’s Hospital. For the next 5 years all funds raised through Kindervelt will benefit The Heart Institute’s Neurodevelopmental Educational & Learning Clinic. This institute is one of only a few programs in the country designed to meet the unique needs of pediatric heart patients in the adolescent years following heart surgery. Research shows that children with complex heart problems are at greater risk for neurodevelopmental issues when compared to heart-healthy children. Many of these children experience one or more mild deficits across a range of areas, including difficulties with reading, speech and language issues, feeding or nutritional problems, attention problems, and/or delayed motor skills. The heart Institute’s NDC is committed to partnering with families to help children reach their full potential through ongoing neurodevelopmental care. Kindervelt #76 is pleased to be a part of fundraising efforts city-wide to benefit the Neurodevelopmental Education and Learning Clinic. Kindervelt as a whole has raised over 15 million dollars for Children’s Hospital over the last 26 years. Terrace Park Kindervelt members raised over 26,000 dollars last year through various charity events and fundraisers including Luminaria, Desert Auction, Major Event “Perfect Pairings” and Eggstravaganza, as well the generous donations from our neighbors and friends.

Kindervelt #76 invites all Terrace Park women to join us as we continue “Having Fun While Raising Funds”! Please contact KV Vice President Katie Sheridan for event details and membership information: katiecoleman3@yahoo.com.

Blatt-Herold accepted to writing workshop

Submitted by Josephine McKenrick

Sarah Blatt-Herold, a junior at Mariemont High School and resident of Terrace Park, was accepted into the Jackie Demaline Criticism Workshop at Playhouse in the Park for the 2012-2013 school year. All workshops take place at Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, and the Cincinnati Enquirer’s Jackie Demaline leads the seminar on creative writing and critical analysis.

Sarah’s grandma piqued her interest in stage performances by bringing Sarah to opera productions when she was a little girl. Sarah always loved writing, and would like to major in English in college with a possible double major in Philosophy. “I’m really excited about learning a different style of writing and about learning those writing and analytical skills from the best,” said Sarah. Students perfect their writing and critiquing skills by reviewing the Marx season at Playhouse and productions at theaters across Greater Cincinnati. The

Sarah Blatt-Herold class includes two Marx Theatre subscriptions and complimentary tickets at other assigned theaters.

be informed about any changes. David Moyer, of the zoning committee, announced that the heights of accessory structures, unsightly debris in front yards, storage of junk vehicles (often unlicensed), and driveway planning will be on the October 15 meeting agenda. Also to be discussed is matching definitions with the State of Ohio. Residents are welcome to attend the meeting at 7 p.m. at the Community Building. Building and Grounds Councilman Rick Tripp, Buildings and Grounds, sent best wishes to Randy Haller, TP Arborist, who is preparing to undergo hip surgery. A resolution passed to use allotted funds to be drawn for 2013 work for street trees including controlling of tree blight and disease, planting, maintenance, trimming and the removal of shade trees along the streets of Terrace Park.

TPHS wants your unique wildlife photos

Submitted by TPHS Archive Team www.tphistoricalsociety.org

One of the distinctive features of our community is that it truly deserves to be called a “park.” Not only do we enjoy a green and forested environment, but the abundance of large trees, sheltering brush, nearby water, and distance from urban areas make it a popular home for many kinds of wildlife. Although not all species are equally appreciated, the profusion of squirrels, rabbits and songbirds of every description add a unique charm to the neighborhood.

One of the more unusual animals to have taken up residence here is the white squirrel and over the years it has assumed the role of unofficial mascot for the village. There are also reports of black squirrels and even a few tame squirrels, and of course the ordinary kind, which are credited with being noticeably larger than those found elsewhere. Deer, woodchucks, opossums, coyotes and turkey vultures, just to name a few, have made Terrace Park their home over the years. For a future edition of the Village Views, the Terrace Park Historical Society Archive Team would like to invite interested residents to contribute photos or stories they may have regarding unique wildlife in our neighborhood. Pictures would be especially appreciated, including any showing the large turkey vultures that have taken to roosting in our tall trees for the night. Photos and/or stories can be e-mailed to saf Frank@fuse.net or you may call (770) 616-1518 (Susan Rodgers) and we will be glad to come by, pick up photos and make copies for you.
