

$700,000 Needed To Replace TP's Four-inch Water Lines

By Sue Porter

Compression studies show that the village's older water lines need to be replaced to avoid water shortages at critical times. The project, which would replace four-inch pipe lines with eight-inch ones, carries an estimated $700,000 price tag.

These findings were presented at village council's March 12 meeting by council member Dan Startzman, chairman of the public works committee. He explained that though Indian Hill Water Works supplies water to Terrace Park residents and provides minor repairs to the system, the village is responsible for the infrastructure.

"The pipes are given a 60-year life," Startzman said, "and these four-inch pipes are well beyond their useful life."

Fire department tests indicate all hydrants are within the necessary tolerance levels, but diminishing capacity in the older areas of the community - including pipelines that serve Terrace Park Elementary School - are reason for concern.

"The problem is not providing water to houses," Startzman said. "But if we had two fires at the same time there could be a problem."

It was noted that a construction project near Stanton and Miami avenues revealed a four-inch pipe that was all but one- and-a-half inches occluded.

Blockage generally is created by sediment and chemical buildup, and isn't a problem for 80 percent of the community - the newer areas that are served by six-inch and eight-inch pipes.

Startzman suggested funding the project with a 20-year Issue 2 state loan that could be repaid by an assessment on property owners' tax bills or an assessment on water-users as a capital improvements measure.

He was reluctant at this early stage to predict how much the project would cost property owners or end-users.

"More discussion is obviously needed," he said, "but we do need to go ahead quickly if we're to have engineering studies completed in time for the Sept. 1 loan application deadline."

Official Action

Advanced to third-reading status and approved by council were seven resolutions:

- Authorizing and directing the village to construct an earthen mound to reduce the risk of flooding to the Sleepy Hollow subdivision.

Designed by Savage and Walker, the mound will parallel the south bank tree line on CG&E property off Elm Avenue. CG&E granted a 20-foot storm sewer easement to facilitate construction. Payment of construction costs, which are not to exceed $8,000, will be negotiated with E. Jack Brendamour, Sleepy Hollow developer who has $30,000 in an escrow account with the village.

- Authorizing Proctor Insurance to replace its current sign at 705 Wooster Pike with a sign of the same size, illumination and placement.

- Authorizing Hinners Ashland of 704 Wooster to replace an Amoco sign with an Ashland Oil sign of the same size and illumination.

- To purchase 30 folding chairs for the community building to replace unstable ones that pose a safety hazard. The cost is not to exceed $800.

- Authorizing Paint by the Number to prepare and paint the gazebo on the village green at a cost not to exceed $950.

- Authorizing Davey Tree to plant trees purchased from local tree growers Double D and Earthscapes. Labor is $35 per tree and the average cost per tree is $113, bringing the cost of planting 12 trees to $1,364.50.

- To retain Evans Landscaping at a cost of $2,000 to grind-up brush and wood that has accumulated at the service center in recent years. Burial of yard waste, the method previously used by the village, is no longer in compliance with EPA regulations.

Council heard the first reading of a resolution that authorized placement of an off-site sign. Wiebold Art Studio, Inc., of 413 Terrace Place, will be one of the three businesses Proctor Insurance incorporates in its Wooster Pike sign if the measure passes.

At present, councilmembers expressed concern about setting a precedent for off-site advertisements, and questioned whether the resolution was sufficiently restrictive. Solicitor Bob Malloy will intervene to find an agreement more suitable to council.

Visitors

Sleepy Hollow subdivision resident Jack Brown inquired into the status of bridge replacement and the enlargement of the culvert through the tunnel on Elm Avenue. Mr. Startzman said the state was expected to notify recipients of Issue 2 grants in January, but that for some unknown reason has pushed back its announcement date to an unspecified time.

Another Sleepy Hollow resident, Greg Malone, asked when Elm Court would be accepted as a dedicated street. Councilman Dan Keefe said the village is negotiating with Mr. Brendamour.

"There are still a few open issues that need to be resolved before we can move forward," Keefe said. "I realize the inconvenience this caused residents when there was no snow removal this winter." Reports

- Fire Chief Phil Schneider said training begins March 19 for three new recruits: John Burbank, Jamie Overbey and Chris Rugh. He said Hamilton County will be conducting open burning on the Kroeger Hills property near Drackett Field through April. However, Hamilton County and village ordinances prohibit residents from open burning. He asks village residents to refrain from this illegal practice as they conduct yard work this spring.

- Councilmember Julie Rugh said she'll investigate the use of the wilderness preserve by horseback riders. Erosion and pollution concerns have been raised by residents.

Kiwanis Club Sells $10 Bike Helmets

The Mariemont Kiwanis Club will be selling bicycle helmets at the Terrace Park Community Building Sat., Apr. 20 from 9 a.m. to noon. These safety helmets normally sell for $28 but will be available during the sale for $10 each. This program is co-sponsored by Children's Hospital, Choice Care and Southern Ohio Kiwanis for Kids (SOKKS).

Police Chief Bob Bacon said he hopes it will be a "Safety Saturday" and invited village residents coming to the Community Building for the helmet sale to listen in on the seminar on the use of force that Terrace Park police officers will attend that morning. The seminar, conducted by Police Officer's Training Academy instructor Sam Faulkner, focuses on what the community expects from the police department regarding the use of force.

The equinox officially occurred at 3 a.m. on Mar. 20, just about the same time the snow began to cover Terrace Park. More than five inches of wet, heavy snow eventually covered the village. The maintenance crew was out before 6 a.m. clearing and spreading salt. Undaunted, Tara Hawk, manned her crossing guard post, and Robbie Lewis had no trouble finding a spot to park his bike.

Eaton Brings Home Another Gold Medal

Swimming five seconds faster than her qualifying time, Shelley Eaton finished the 500-yard freestyle at the state swimming championships Feb. 24 in 4:55.63 to bring home another gold medal. At last year's championships she won a gold in the 200 freestyle and a silver in the 500.

Eaton also finished third in the 200 free, swam the breast stroke leg of the seventh place 200 medley relay and anchored the ninth place 400 freestyle relay for Mariemont High School. With Freshman Leah Ross finishing fifth in the 100 butterfly (57.18) Mariemont ranked seventh in the team standings, two ahead of last year's record breaking ninth place. Freshman Leslie Lakamp, also from Terrace Park, swam the second leg of the 400 free relay and Ross swam the butterfly in the medley relay.

Looking back to junior high, Eaton said she didn't know then if she'd still be swimming now. She decided you really have to make yourself work hard to achieve goals. She noted it's really hard to perform just for yourself and concluded you are much more motivated if you swim for a team.

Next year she will swim for the University of Tennessee. Eaton liked the feel of Knoxville and the atmosphere at the school and she'll join swimmers she knows from Dayton and Cincinnati on the Tennessee team. Eaton received a full athletic scholarship from UT and was a Cincinnati Enquirer Player of the Week on Feb. 28.

Eaton said she was not the first Mariemont student to win a gold medal at state. Terrace Park's Jim Stites, who now coaches swimming at the University of Arizona, finished first in 1975 in the 500 free style. Eaton said his parents, Jim and Edna Stites sent her a really nice note when she won her medal.

Leslie Lakamp

The Ultimate Champ

Before the final night of the state swimming championships in Canton Feb 24, Terrace Park resident Sally Lyons accepted the Carl Wirthwein Award for her husband Larry Lyons, who died of a heart attack last July. The posthumous honor for Coach Lyons is most appropriate as it honors the person who has done the most for Ohio high school swimming.

Lyons, who had coached swimming at Mariemont, Sycamore and Anderson high schools, won a national championship in 1995 with his Anderson Barracudas.

Newcomers Hold Spring Meeting

Newcomers will hold their spring meeting Thurs., Mar. 28 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Janet Allen Reid, 827 Douglas. All members are invited and asked to bring either an appetizer, wine or beer. Any resident of Terrace Park is welcomed for membership. For information call Marilynne Chapman at 248-4705.

Letters To The Editor

Suggest Editor Apply At National Enquirer

Dear Editor:
Jill Croswell's letter, which appeared in the February issue of Village Views was right on target. Ms. Croswell's letter concerned an alleged assault involving children in Terrace Park.

We agree the Village Views was way off base reporting names and describing incidents that should be settled between the Terrace Park Police and the parties involved.

If the editorial staff (of the) Village Views wishes to engage in such mean spirited, vicious, reporting, perhaps the National Enquirer is looking for applicants!

How Much Was Your House ?

Dear Editor,
I want to thank you for plastering our address on the price we paid for our house on the front page of your last issue. However, I must point out that you forgot to mention that we paid $12,000 for our truck, and $7,000 for our car. That too, is public information available from any car dealer.

R.J. Murphy

P.S. By the way, how much did you say you paid for your house?

(Editor's Note: The house sales have been published for many years in the Village Views to help residents understand the true market value of the homes in the village. For years Mel Aichholz would provide the home sales, which included mine of $42,000 some 23 years ago.)

Van Wyes Salute Sousa

Joyce and Jack Van Wye will perform in the concert honoring John Phillip Sousa on Sun., Apr. 14 at 3 p.m. at Memorial Hall on Elm St. in Cincinnati. Marcus Neiman and The Sounds of Sousa Band will perform the tribute as part of the Over-the-Rhine Heritage Festival.

Thank You, Hap Lindell

Dear Editor:
I want to thank Hap Lindell!!!! When I saw the wooden stakes outlining his property on Elm, I thought a bunch of houses were going to be built there. I pulled over and sadly told my kids to always remember the serene, open pasture. I told them to always remember seeing the deer grazing on warm summer evening. I told them to always remember how beautiful it was and that soon it would come to an end.

Then, to our delight, the fence went up, the barn went up and the horses arrived. What a thrill to see the serene open pasture with deer and horses grazing together with the sunset in the background.

Thank you for adding such a charming touch to our wonderful village. Thank you for giving all of us a place to sit quietly with our children and appreciate nature at its finest, right in our own backyards!!!!

TPWC Wants Your Home

To The Citizens of Terrace Park,
Information from home-owners about houses, old and new, continues to help build a story about our village history.

As Terrace Park Womens Club member, Carol Cole, adds new information to the data base, a picture begins to emerge about when homes were built, who the original owners were, and how many owners a given house may have sheltered.

Although forms are scarcely "pouring in", there are only a few small areas from which she has not received some information. We have received at least something about twenty per cent of the homes. We want 100%!

With so many buildings receiving partial or total reconstruction, the club believes that the entire community will enjoy the results of this service project for years to come.

We want EVERY HOME included in the survey and need your help to accomplish this. Forms are available from Carol, 831-6771 or Pat Henley, 831-2147.

The Terrace Park Womens Club thanks YOU.

Lindahl Wins Omer

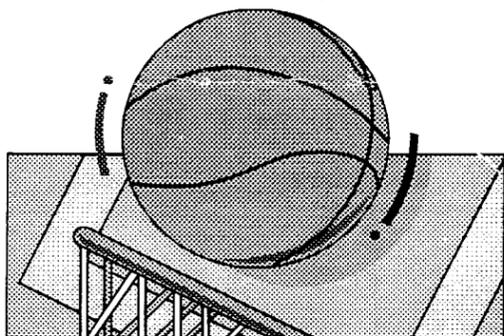

Terrace Park Elementary School fifth grader Miles Lindahl won the Omer Award at the Odyssey of the Mind Competition Mar. 2 for demonstrating outstanding quality in the spirit of the OM competition.

Miles said he basically adlibbed his narration when his team was presenting their long term problem. With the goal of helping the handicapped, the team had designed a method for playing the trumpet without using your hands. When their taped music didn't come on when it was supposed to Miles had to think fast on his feet. The judges were impressed with his ability to use humor in addition to his acting abilities.

His acting has not been limited to OM, as Miles has performed with the Mariemont Players at Walton Creek. He portrayed young Scrooge this year in the PlayHouse in the Park production of A Christmas Carol.

Terrace Park Elementary students, from left, Patty Amis, Sam Amis and Grant Rosson admire the mural being painted by all Terrace Park students in preparation for Fine Arts Week. This year's theme is "Street Art". Street music and Hip-Hop dance will also be a part of Fine Arts Week, April 1 -3.

Plant Sale Set For May 3 & 4

by Ruth Rauth

Terrace Park Garden Club Plant Sale Chairwomen Lanie Grever and Lucy Maish report that enthusiasm is building for the annual plant sale at the Village Green. Grever, shown here ready for spring in her garden hat, reminds all residents and friends to begin planning their gardens now that winter is finally fading. Remember that profits from this event are used for village beautification. Pre-orders may be mailed in (see insert in this issue of the Village Views) and those who have ordered in the past will be called in April by members of the club.

Garden Club members hope that new participants and friends from other communities will shop the Plant Sale this year. The sale opens Friday, May 3 from 3:30 to 7 p.m. and concludes Saturday, May 4 from 9 a.m. to noon. Also serving on the committee are Julie Ward, Karen Ballinger and Sara Osborn.

The April 2 Garden Club meeting at noon at the Community Building will feature Sue Brungs of the Herb Society speaking on Container Gardening, including Window Boxes.

Terrace Park is the host village for the Southwest Ohio Regional Tree City USA Awards Program on Friday, April 19. Congressman Rob Portman will speak to the group which includes representatives of 20 villages and cities. The program is sponsored annually by the National Arbor Day Foundation in cooperation with the Ohio Department of Natural Resources Division of Forestry and the U.S. Forest Service. Garden Club members will serve as hostesses.

TP's MacMillan Earns All-American Honors

Stephanie MacMillan recently completed an outstanding first season with The College of Wooster's swim team.

A freshman, MacMillan's top performances included a first-place finish in the 500-yard freestyle (5:06.24) and second place finishes in the 1650 freestyle (17:24.04) and the 100 backstroke (1:00.73) at the North Coast Athletic Conference Championship Meet. All three wins earned All-NCAC honors for MacMillan and qualified her for the NCAA Division III Championship Meet.

In addition, MacMillan set school records in the 200 freestyle (1:57.97), the 500 freestyle (5:06.24), the 1000 freestyle (10:31.12) and the 1650 freestyle (17:24.04), as well as the 100 (1:00.07) and 200 backstroke events (2:10.36).

At the NCAA Division III Championship Meet at Emory University in Atlanta, MacMillan placed sixth in the 500-yard freestyle, 13th in the 100-yard backstroke, and fifth in the 1650-yard freestyle. All three swims, and each of the four relays in which she participated, earned All-American honors for MacMillan.

"From the outset, it was clear that Stephanie had the potential to be a national leader in Division III swimming," said Wooster head coach Keith Beckett. "She is certain to have just as much of an impact during the next three years."

MacMillan, who swam at the state championships in 1995 for Mariemont High School, is the daughter of Gregg and Linda MacMillan of 112 Michigan Dr.

Rec. Com. Welcomes New Board Members

by Sandy Wittman-Shell

At its March 11 meeting, the Terrace Park Recreation Committee in executive session elected Dave Troller Basketball Commissioner. Also recently elected were: Kathy Thoman, Secretary; Lauri Heffner, Fund Raising; Larry Williams, Labor Day; and Julie Smith, Summer Fun.

Commissioners are elected to a specific sport or job from volunteers that step forward to serve a three year term. TPRC welcomes comments, suggestions and volunteers and has made positive change within the committee in the past year. Committee President Bill Drackett's annual message to village residents will appear in next month's Village Views with the TPRC financial statement.

Outgoing Basketball Commissioner Finnigan reported on the end of the successful season. Coaches Albrecht and Wilson took their fourth grade girls team to second place in the league, while Coaches Ballinger, Copes and Martin also took their boys fifth grade team to second place.

Baseball Commissioner Skip Kirby has his head coaches in place and team drafts will take place in mid-March. The season will begin the last weekend in April. Knothole teams will play 13 -15 games on a mid-week day and Saturday. Instructional T-ball has 33 children sign up. Kirby welcomes any interested coaches.

The school district's committee for use of fields will make some safety improvements to the large field at Stanton by raising the height and sides of the back stop of the fence and improve the field condition. There will be minor improvements made to the back stop on the northeast field. Regarding the use of Stanton Field, the board stated the field is district owned which gives the district priority. TPRC sports will be scheduled next. Select teams will not have access for games or tournaments.

There will be two Cincinnati Reds Kid Glove games for Knothole, Apr. 1 vs NY Mets or Apr. 30 vs. Pittsburgh Pirates. Last year Kirby received $1,183 in equipment from the Reds. New baseball uniforms will be purchased to the extent the budget allows, replacing the older age levels first.

Buzz Ecker will be the new head umpire and will be hosting an umpire's clinic Mar. 30 in the elementary school gym from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for anyone 12 years and older interested. There is a $5 fee at the door.

Kirby drafted a "code of ethics for coaches", which the committee thought should be adopted for each sport. The new storage space at the school will be painted and have shelves installed for equipment and uniforms for all sports.

Softball Commissioner Steve Wilson reported all coaches are in place with the season set to run Apr. 13 through June 1. There are two teams at each level with one team at the seventh and eighth grade level. All teams have First Aid kits.

Soccer Commissioner Jaime Egasti said there will be a Jack Herman clinic June 3-7 from 6-9 p.m. with a $60 fee. Clinics will also be held in Indian Hill and Fairfax throughout the summer. Egasti will also host coaches/players clinics in Aug. A dozen boys are playing spring soccer outside of Terrace Park.

Field Commissioner Jack Forbes reported weather is holding up field maintenance. Forbes will post signs to "Keep Off" Drackett Field, especially during this wet time of year. Both tractors are being serviced to prepare for spring. Sy Swart will maintain the fields again this year along with Scott Wilson. Forbes is looking for any person 18 years or older interested in helping line or drag the fields. Call him at 831-1818.

Labor Day Commissioner Laurie Heffner is ready for the Memorial Day Raffle with distribution through the elementary school. Class prizes were discussed with Principal Jerry Sasson.

To raise funds for new uniforms, TPRC will host a Pig Roast at the Log Cabin June 1 from 7:30 p.m. to midnight at $35 a couple. This event is open to all residents. There will be a Cajun band. In case of rain the roast will be moved to the community building. Look for more details in the April VV.

Laurie Heffner and Julie Smith will co-ordinate a safety procedure review for each sport.

Long Distance Calls Benefit Local Schools

AT&T residential long distance subscribers can provide TechCredits to the local school of their choice through AT&T Technology for Education Program. Schools can redeem Tech Credits for the latest in computers and software. Each month, AT&T will automatically provide five TechCredits for every dollar of eligible long distance calls made using AT&T. Participation is free and there is nothing for contributors to collect! To register call 1-800-272-0600. Participants must have a school identification number at the time of their calls. This is a great way to help contribute to the school district's technology program. And it only takes one phone call! Please give one of the following numbers when calling AT&T's TechCredit number: Terrace Park Elementary (36104017) or Mariemont Junior/Senior High School (36102283).

Additional commercial endeavors that benefit Terrace Park Elementary PTA include:

*PNC Bank Programs, contact Sue Keffer (831-4499).

*Kroger Gift Certificates, Christy Albrecht (248-1779).

*Market Day, Penny Phillips or Mamie Drackett (831-6409).
