

Council's 1997 Budget Is 8% LESS Than 1996

by Pat Henley

Council's 1997 budget of $987,057 is 7.9% less than the 1996 budget of $1,071,018. The village will continue to operate at a deficit of $89,013 which is approximately half of last year's deficit of $186,418.

A significant source of savings is $48,600 in capital outlays as last year's budget included a new police cruiser and street maintenance and repair equipment. Another $24,900 is saved in Fire and EMS Contract Services which is $8,800 in '97, down from $33,700 in '96.

Finance Chairman Tim Brown had presented the proposed 1997 budget at the May meeting, but passage needed to be formalized for presentation to the county. Council held its regular meeting on June 11, but reconvened on June 13 for a special meeting to vote on the budget and accept a bid for the summer's street work.

At the June 11 session two new auxiliary police officers were sworn in and will serve the village on a volunteer basis. They are: Dwayne Ernst, who is a graduate of the Clermont County Sheriff's Academy and Cassandra Ware, who has an associate degree in criminal justice. The village will provide sponsorship so that she can attend a police academy.

Rain and water continue to concern many residents who seek answers and help from the council.

Ricki Schmidt inquired about the village stance on the "lake effect" caused by water run-off from streets into backyards from Marian La., where she lives, as well as on Redbird La. Councilman Dan Startzman replied that the village has never agreed on a uniform way to handle these seasonal problems. He also commented that the village cannot undertake dry-well installations as they did in the past, because they are not allowed under OEPA rules without a permit from that body.

Jack Brown of Elm Ct. and Rob Martin of Elm La. both appeared with questions regarding water problems in the lower Elm area. Councilman Dan Keefe reported that the village is awaiting the completion of a study being done by Savage-Walker engineers.

Mayor Jennifer Comfort will attend a program later this month to receive the $144,000 in Issue II funds, which will be applied to culvert and water control work in the lower Elm area.

In his monthly report Police Chief Bob Bacon expressed concern about the current "juvenile activity", which includes drinking, drugs and vandalism. Locale of much of the trouble is around the Dairy Mart and long the bike path. Bacon said that use of the bike patrol is helpful.

Recently five youngsters under 15 were arrested for drug abuse. Not all were from the village.

There is a suspicion that some kids are being dropped off in Terrace Park in the evenings from villages where there is a curfew. He said that he personally opposes the curfew idea. (T.P. Council has not discussed this option.) He stressed that "there will be low tolerance throughout the village for questionable activity this summer."

The chief reiterated his policy that the "keg law" will be strictly enforced.

Bacon announced that beginning in mid-June, there will be a more diligent program of writing citations for speeding, failure to stop at signs, etc.

A resolution was presented by Councilman John Finnigan to install a timer for the lights at the basketball hoop at the Log Cabin. Council unanimously agreed. There have been complaints from nearby residents about late night play.

At the June 13 special meeting, Startzman presented the bids received for street work. These were somewhat higher than had been anticipated, but Council agreed that all the work should be done, so revised the 1996 budget accordingly. Of the three bids received, the lowest was from Schumacker-Dugan at $38,500. When engineering costs were added, the total was about $7,000 over budget.

Finance Chair Tim Brown suggested council meet before the July meeting to discuss the need for a fall tax levy. The special meeting is set for Tues., June 25 at 7:30 p.m.

Judy Schmitz Heads Jr. High

Judy Schmitz has been appointed principal of Mariemont Junior High School, which will open its doors at the Dale Park school for the first time Aug. 26. Mrs. Schmitz has been actively involved in the planning of the junior high program for the coming school year.

She has been the environmental science teacher at Mariemont HIGH School for 14 years and has taught at Mt. Notre Dame in Reading and at Princeton High School. Mrs. Schmitz received her bachelor's degree in biology education, her master's degree in education and her elementary administrator certificate from Xavier University.

"I'm delighted to have the opportunity to be a part of such an exciting period of change in the Mariemont School District," Mrs. Schmitz said. "I look forward to working with such a dedicated and talented staff; hard-working, enthusiastic students; and an involved parental community."

Superintendent Gerry Harris said, "Judy Schmitz has been a dynamic teacher and I look forward to her being the instructional leader in our new junior high. She has always been a child advocate and has experience with students and parents."

Tom Crosby has been appointed assistant principal at Mariemont High School for the 1996-97 school year. He is replacing Jerry Cousins, who is retiring from the Mariemont School District after 15 years as assistant principal and basketball coach at Mariemont High School. Cousins is returning to his alma mater, McNicholas High School in Mt. Washington to serve as principal.

School Board Adopts Extra-Curricular Code

The Mariemont Board of Education at its June 18 meeting adopted new policies for the extra-curricular code and valedictorian selection. Action on the report from the committee reviewing the district's substance abuse policy was delayed until the July 16 meeting.

The new extra-curricular code requires a two week suspension in extra-curricular activities after a violation of the alcohol/drugs tobacco regulations. The extra-curricular code requires students representing Mariemont High School to abstain from the use or possession of alcoholic beverages as defined in the Student Handbook. The code also advises students that tobacco use and possession are not permitted. The new code mandates an appearance before an appeals board by the offending student and their parents before re-admission to extra-curricular activity is permitted. A second offense would result in expulsion from ALL extra-curricular activities for the remainder of the school year.

Mariemont High School graduates were recently in the news after the Liquor Control Division of the Ohio Department of Public Safety raided a graduation party June 9 and 10 in Sardinia. Many of the 16 arrested for underage possession of alcohol were recent Mariemont High graduates. Close to 200 students apparently drove to Sardinia after the Sunday night graduation ceremony to attend the party sponsored by Ray Fink and his son Ryan, 18, who had just graduated from Mariemont.

Mayor Addresses Canine Complaints

With the warmer weather, the number of dog complaints is increasing. While you may think your Fido would never hurt a fly, much less a child your neighbors may not be quite as convinced. I have received several reports from residents who have been threatened by aggressive dogs that confidently ran out of their yards, presumably through their invisible fences. Other residents are tired of the dog waste that is lettering the neighborhood, particularly at the street where people step in and out of their cars.

Since new residents may not be aware of the laws pertaining to animals in Terrace Park, here is a reminder:

- No animal is permitted to run a large;
- If not in your own yard, all animals should be kept under your control, i.e. on a leash.
- No animal waste shall be left in public places or neighbors' yards;
- No one shall keep an animal that habitually barks or howls so as to disturb the peace.
- No one shall keep a dog that exhibits a vicious disposition.

Violations of the above are considered minor misdemeanors and punishable as such.

Let's keep Terrace Park safe and clean for everybody. Thank you for your cooperation!

Mayor Jennifer A. Comfort

Think Labor Day

Summer hasn't officially begun, but Denise Hall wants you to think about Labor Day, the Labor Day Parade! This year's parade will feature a float competition to be judged by Steve Woody, manager of Kroger's Mariemont store, which is awarding a $150 gift certificate for a Labor Day Picnic for the winners. Floats can be created by individuals, families, friends, neighbors, troops or community organizations. The theme is your Favorite Movie. While enjoying your summer, start planning with your kids, neighbors and friends. Details will be posted on the community bulletin boards and in the August issue of the Village Views. Make this a parade to remember!

Thirty-one students were enrolled in two Kindergarten classes at Terrace Park Elementary School in the fall of 1983. Mrs. Ann Kempczinski was their teacher; Harold Theiss was the principal. Joann Trilety worked in the school office and Ronald Reagan was President. Seventeen of those Kindergarteners spent the next 13 years together in school and graduated from Mariemont High School June 9. The "Lifers" include: (front row from left) Scott Blomer, Ben Ross, Branden Ervin; (middle row from left) Tisha Menchhofer, Maggie Kain, Angela Hielt, Poe Heilbronner, Leslie Pope; (back row) Sarah Early, Stephanie Smith, Amanda Campo and Kristin Jones. Not pictured are Bobby Bodnar, Antoni Gambetta, Andrew Maddux, Alex Ward.

Please Consider Pluralist Democracy

Village council practiced unsound policy when it authorized or allowed a clerical invocation at the Memorial Day gathering on the public green which was markedly sectarian, and therefore notably insensitive to those holding other opinions on religious matters.

At previous public events there had been some improvement when invited clergy offered general theistic ideas. That style had drawn away from earlier invocations, making explicit reference to one religion The clerical performance May 27 was two steps backward.

Council members have the responsibility of ensuring that in the future any messages projected at government sponsored events on the tax-supported green are humanistic and non-judgmental about beliefs, disbeliefs and in-between positions on theological subjects. The most efficient way to meet such a standard would be to discontinue clerical invocations out of respect for up-to-date pluralist democracy.

Yours sincerely,
Paul F. Power
Amherst Ave.

Thank You, Village

To the People of Terrace Park:
I would like to thank you for all the cards, prayers, flowers, phone calls, visits and food that I received during my illness since March 20, 1996. It certainly brought up my spirits. I never truly realized how much sch things could do to help a person recover, I am still recovering and expect to be fully recovered in two or three more weeks.

Many thanks again to all.
Ruth Oberle
Harvard Ave.

Editor's Note:

The Memorial Day Parade is organized and sponsored by the Terrace Park Elementary PTA. The only change in recent memory was this year's Parade Marshall Lauri Heffner is not the newly elected PTA Vice President. She has served as both PTA president and vice president and offered to organize the event. The village government does not sponsor this event. Labor Day events are organized by the Terrace Park Recreation Committee and the Tree Lighting Ceremony is presented by private citizens of the village.

TP's Mary Ann Madewell Serves Girl Scout Board

Schmidt Named Lazarus Award Finalist

Cincinnati Mayor Roxanne Qualls congratulates Maren Schmidt, who was awarded books and a bond as a Simon Lazarus, Jr. Human Relations Awards finalist. Mayor Qualls was one of five judges who selected the five finalists from the 40 high school seniors nominated for the annual award from the Cincinnati Chapter of the American Jewish Committee. Private, public and parochial schools in Southern Ohio and Northern Kentucky nominate one senior student who exemplifies service in human relations. Schmidt was nominated by Seven Hills Upper School and also received the The Mayerson Award for High School Community Volunteers for her outstanding volunteer commitment to the Greater Cincinnati Community. An Americorps Volunteer Scholar, who has been awarded a $2,000 scholarship for her studies next year at The College of William and Mary, she has taught inner city students at the Summerbridge programs at Cincinnati Country Day, Seven Hills and at winter programs at the Hughes Center. She organized The Hague International Model United Nations program at Seven Hills and served as Rector for the spring "Happening" retreat held in Dayton for the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio. The daughter of Jack and Ricki Schmidt, she also won the Princeton Gavel Award for Debate this fall at the Princeton Model Congress in Washington, D. C.

A "River" Runs Through It

Looks like the spring of '96 but it's not. Village Archivist Esther Power found this picture, taken by Al Kain who was an Enquirer photographer and Terrace Park resident. It's a little hard to see because it was taken 44 years ago after a heavy downpour on July 16, 1952. The creek which should run parallel to Elm Ave. has turned into a river running through the tunnel, seen here from the south side.

Gray Led MHS Team At State Track Meet

Third Graders Sign Up For July 6 Sleepover

Terrace Park's police officers have set Sat., July 6 for the annual Sleepover for village children who have completed the third grade. A fun night of games, water balloons and roasting marshmallows begins at the Log Cabin at 7 p.m. on Saturday night. The children should be picked up Sunday morning by 8 a.m. Parents who wish to join in the fun are also welcome to stay the night. Please sign up with the police by Fri., June 28.

Maish Honored At Chatham Hall

Cary Dunn Maish received the Katherine Lea Reynolds Best Athlete Award May 29 at the Purple and Gold Athletic Banquet at Chatham Hall. Maish was also chosen by a vote of the school to be Captain of the Gold Team, one of the school's two intramural athletic teams.

In addition to playing lacrosse, softball, basketball, field hockey and soccer, Maish has served as the President of the Dance Committee, performed in "Godspell", and been a member of the Spanish Club and Menebonia, the environmental club. She was also chosen to serve on the board of the school's literary magazine, Iris and to perform in the senior singing group, Sextet.

The daughter of Lucy and George Maish of Park Ave., Cary is also a member of the honorary Chatham Athletic Council. The Reynolds Award, which is a special honor to receive as a junior, is named after a friend of Cary's mother, who also graduated from Chatham Hall, a residential college preparatory school for girls in the Piedmont hills of southern Virginia.

Newlyweds Move to TP

by Cyndy Finnigan

It's a new beginning in Terrace Park for newlyweds Donald and Stacie Waring at 900 Princeton; both hail from Michigan, but Donald has been here for the past year as Rector of St. Thomas Church. Stacie is an industrial engineer for GM and states they are currently working "long, long hours." She added, "We are so excited to be in this lovely community and looking forward to spending many happy years in Terrace Park."

Other "newlyweds" new to Terrace Park are Rick and Cindy Tripp at 215 Rugby. They moved here from Hyde Park where she admits they "gave up some convenience, but get personal space here and peace and quiet." Cindy works at P&G and Rick is an architect. They both enjoy gardening and tennis.

Jeff and Jennifer Jackson came to Robinwood Lane from the Eastgate area. They have been members of St. Thomas Church for several years and are "very excited to be here" after finding the home that "just suited them." Jeff, an engineer, added the schools were another attraction. He said, "Our children (Andrea, 4, Jeff (Keeky), 3; Emily, 7 months) are all looking forward to just going down the hill to the pool all summer long."

Moving in and out of Terrace Park has become "old hat" to Carolyn and Jack McAfee, new residents at 739 Indian Hill. "We were both raised here," states Carolyn. "Our first home as a couple was on Wrenwood before moving to Detroit. We moved back to Terrace Park and lived on Redbird for 13 years before moving to Sarasota and then back to Terrace Park again. We loved raising our children here. It's just as pretty as ever!" She declared. "Some people live here forever and that's what we plan on doing now." The McAfee are retired, enjoying grand kids and pursuing hobbies. Carolyn plans on volunteering at the Cincinnati Zoo and Jack is honing his skills on the golf course.

Roose Earns NKU Degree

Tanya Roose graduated from Northern Kentucky University with an Associates Degree in Aviation Administration, earning a 3.57 GPA. She is beginning employment with Delta Airlines and plans to continue her education for a B.S. in business management. She is the daughter of Thomas and Kristin Roose of Western Ave. and Joyce Roose of Detroit, Mich.

TP Students Earn Honors At CCDS

Terrace Park students earning High Honors at Cincinnati Country Day School for the 1995-96 school year include: senior Melissa Wachterman; junior Zoe Hutton; sophomore Anna Yokel and freshmen Matt Buban and Adam Parish. Freshman David Lowry earned Honors for the academic year.

Melissa Wachterman was also honored at the June 6th Upper School Awards Day with awards for both acting and music.

Sixth grader Adam Yokel received the Middle School Award, given to students who best represent a positive attitude, dedication to school work and school activities, leadership, respect for and kindness to others.

Ann Yokel was named CCDS Schmidlapp Scholar. The Schmidlapp Fund promotes the study of math and science for women by funding grants for female students with a strong interest and high aptitude in math and science.

TP Teams Win Titles

Celebrating their 7-0 season and first place honors in the Fairfax Softball League, Terrace Park's fifth and sixth graders beat their moms 8-6 in a mother daughter game. Playing in the celebration game were: (Back two rows from left) Elizabeth Bieser, Kay and Courtney Callaghan, Judy and Lindsay Deeter, Lynette and Susie Overby, Gail and Erin Nickum, Carole and Rebecca Parrish, Nancy and Brooke Seward; Bottom three rows from left) Natalie Bieser, Coach Kris and Meggie Safford, Libby and Mary Brown, Kathy and Chelsea Mitchell, Karen and Emily Aicklen, Eileen and Sandy Buban, Coach Diane and Megan Govert, Sharon Bollman and Amy Fisher. Not pictured are Tess and Tara Hawk.

Eberhard Wins Best of Festival

Terrace Park Artist Mark Eberhard captured the "Best of Festival" award at the recent Cincinnati Arts Festival Art on the Square with his realistically rendered "Goldfinch", a 48 x 66 inch acrylic on canvas.

The juried exhibition, which ran through June 21, was hosted by the Weston Art Gallery at the Aronoff Center for the Arts. Jurors for the event, which included the work of 30 regional artists, were Charles Desmarais, Director of the Contemporary Arts Center; Barbara Gibbs, Director of the Cincinnati Art Museum; and Phillip Long, Director of the Taft Museum.

Although he's been painting since childhood, Eberhard is currently working on an impressive series of paintings dedicated to the observable, natural presentation of American birds. "I hope the viewer, after experiencing my work, goes away with an appreciation and curiosity for the natural world, especially in their own backyard," says Eberhard.

"Birds and the environment are the bearers of my message. They have provided me with both the desire and reason to paint. A close, personal experience with nature, its forms, colors and textures are the basis for my paintings", Eberhard said.

The Yale trained graphic artist was born and raised in Terrace Park where he now resides on Stanton Ave. with his wife and three children. The immediate area, including his own backyard, inspire much of his work.

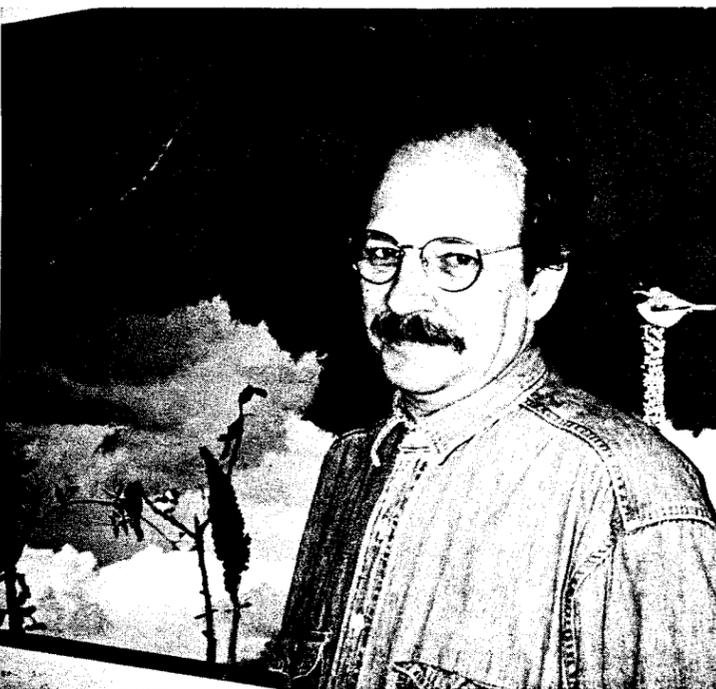

He concluded, "My work deals more with the commonplace than the grand. I hope that if my audience can see the beauty in the everyday, they will be more likely to do their part to help preserve the natural environment."

Last Monday in May + Rain = Memorial Day in Terrace Park

Rain never seems to dampen the spirits of the Boy Scout Color Guard.

Mayor Jennifer Comfort appears to enjoy the moisture and the bikers didn't appear to notice it.

Gentlemen Start Your Engines!

TP resident, Congressman Rob Portman was joined by young motorists in the Memorial Day Parade.

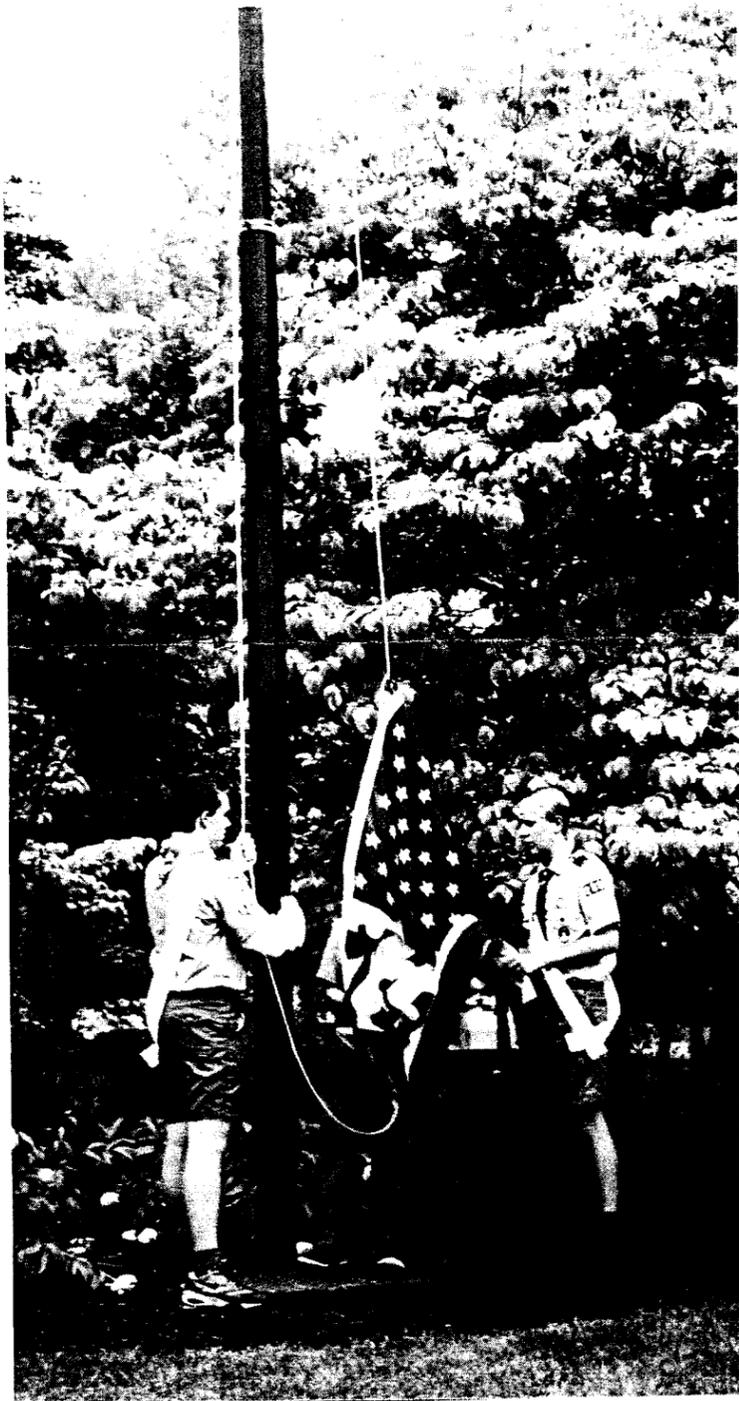

Terrace Park's third grade Brownie Troop presented the Memorial Day wreath.

My feet are dry, Dad.

Where there's water there must be fish!

Al Nelson's "Taps" accompanied the flag ceremony.

Parade Marshall Laurie Heffner, right, also headed the Terrace Park Recreation Committee Raffle, whose winners were announced by Mayor Comfort. The big winner was Robbie Croswell, who earned a gift certificate for selling the most tickets. He sold one to his dad, Scott Croswell who won the second prize of $200. Brandon Moore sold the first place ticket to Elizabeth Moore who won $500. He also sold a ticket to James Brewer which won $100. Also earning gift certificates for ticket sales were second place John Srofe and third place Nick Hader.

United Way Contributions

Terrace Park resident Andrew Mauk serves on one of United Way & Community Chest's eight Field of Service committees that decide where United Way dollars can make a difference in people's lives. The committee members make on-site visits to agencies, town meetings and conferences to decide how best to use the United Way contributions.

Former Resident
Presents Play
At Kennedy Center

Former Wrenwood Lane resident and 1977 graduate of Mariemont High School, Brad Baker heads the theater and film program at Collin County Community College in Plano, Texas. The Region VI American College Theatre Festival selected his school's production of an urban drama, "Stand-Up Tragedy" as one of the top five college performances in the country. The play was then presented in the national finals at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Apr. 15 and 16.

He has credited his Mariemont High School sophomore English teacher, Allie Livengood, as the catalyst for his current success. He knew he wasn't gifted enough to make it in his first love, basketball, but was assured by Ms. Livengood that he was worth something when no one else thought so. For the third consecutive year his theater program has been singled out as one of the top 15 in the country.
