

STATE CHAMPS

By Lon Stirsman

The Mariemont High School men's lacrosse team won the Division II state championship, defeating Rocky River 10-6 on June 8th in Columbus. The victory capped a great run through the tournament by the Warriors, as they beat three of the four regional number one seeds and Indian Hill in their final four games of the year. This was the second state championship for the program, following the first in 2007 when Mariemont defeated New Albany 7-4.

Warrior Nation was out in force to support the team during the playoff run that took the team to Summit, Kusel Stadium, Wilmington College and Upper Arlington. Warrior Nation travels very well and turned each venue into a loud home field advantage for the team.

The Warriors seemed to elevate their game as they progressed through the tournament. Down 10-8 to Summit at halftime in the regional semifinal, they dominated the third period scoring six straight goals. From that point on they controlled play on the field and those in attendance throughout the remainder of the tournament were treated to some outstanding lacrosse.

After defeating Summit 15-12, they rolled through Indian Hill 12-8 at Kusel in the southwest regional final. There are many things to celebrate about our athletic programs, but few things are better than beating Indian Hill.

The team travelled to Wilmington College in the state semifinals to face Columbus DeSales, the defending state champions. DeSales was led by an All-American attackman who will play for Ohio State in college. Fifteen minutes into the game the Warriors were pounding the Stallions 6-0 and DeSales never fully re-

Do you thrive on challenge? Do you want to make a difference in your community and beyond? Do you enjoy learning, making new friends and helping those who are in need? Then you are the person Terrace Park Emergency Medical Services (TPEMS) is looking for.

For more than 50 years, TPEMS has been providing personalized, professional care to our community. In order for this tradition to continue and thrive, we need you. Right now, 27 of your neighbors are giving their time and energy to provide around-the-clock emergency medical care and there is always a need for new recruits. Without dedicated volunteers stepping up to take their turn, this service cannot continue.

Every fall, there is a training session for new candidates. The tuition is free, and the classes all take place during the evening right here at the Terrace Park EMS station.

Experience the satisfaction of seeing anxious expressions change to relief when you arrive at the scene prepared to assist.

Feel welcome to contact us for more information about how to get involved with this great organization! We will be glad to answer any of your questions.

June Village Council meeting

After 28 years of service, Village Arborist Randy Haller (right) will pass the reigns to incoming Urban Forester Mark Castator.

The June meeting of the Council was called to order by the mayor and began with the recognition of Randy Haller for his 32 years of service to the Village of Terrace Park as arborist. A representative of the Tree City Program presented Randy with a token of appreciation and noted that working with Randy for the past 10 years has been a pleasure. Thanks to Haller, the Village has received the US Tree City Award for many years. Holly Purcell, chairperson for Building and Grounds, also recognized Haller's work and gave him gift from the Village.

Mayor: Mayor Jay Gohman proceeded with regular business thanking all of the volunteers for the Memorial Day ceremony and parade. Mayor Gohman then congratulated Mariemont High School's lacrosse team for winning the State Division II Championships and thanked Coach Steve Peterson for his dedication.

News from the Terrace Park Historical Society

Terrace Park Emergency Medical Services – a proud tradition

Terrace Park has many traditions that make our community a unique place to live. There are few other neighborhoods that offer a school in walking distance from most homes, a village green for special events, scouting and sports for the younger set, and clubs and social organizations for the rest of us, not to mention a bike trail and the ambiance of a country town. However, one of the most unusual and valuable resources in our village is the volunteer Emergency Medical Services.

The tradition of neighbors helping neighbors goes back to the 1920s and has been continued until the present day. Although the Emergency Medical Services are separate from the Fire Department today, they were a combined organization for many years, with the first "Life Squadmen" being trained in 1960.

In 1966 Terrace Park became the second rescue organization in Hamilton County to include women as members and the "Women's Auxiliary Life Squad" was established to work with the "Life Squadmen." According to a history by Anne Bauer, "Women were required to 1) have access to an automobile, 2) have no small children, and 3) pass the required fire and life squad safety course. Auxiliary members were to be accompanied by at least one man on runs and work only daytime/week-day hours."

By 1969, the department roster listed 11 "Life Squadmen" under Lieutenant Jeanette McMillan (now Jeanette McMillan Pruis, a Lifetime Member of TPMS), nine of whom were women. The tradition continues today, with seven women among the 25 members, who are no longer called "Life Squadmen", but the more modern sounding "EMTs". Needless to say, the requirements are now the same for everyone, as is the uniform.

The TPMS Department is having their recruiting drive for the fall new member training session, so anyone interested is encouraged to see the article in this month's Village Views "Terrace Park EMS Department Looking for a Few Good Men and Women." Save the Date

On Sunday October 13, 2013, there will be a TPMS program in the Terrace Park Elementary School library. The subjects will be both the Robinson Circus, presented by George McIlveen, circus enthusiast, and the new Walking Tour, created by Tricia DiMichele. Refreshments and social time will begin at 3:30 p.m. and the presentation will take place from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. The program is free and open to everyone. Please save the date! Help!!!!

Police Report

Police responded to a resident's report of two teenagers watching TV on the back porch of an empty house that was for sale. The resident reported that when the teenagers saw him, they left in a Toyota Camry, possibly pewter in color. Upon investigation, police learned that a neighbor had observed two boys playing ball in the backyard of the house. Police confirmed that the house was secure and disposed of beer found in a refrigerator on the back porch.

While exiting UDF, police detected an order of marijuana coming from a vehicle. Police followed the vehicle and initiated a stop. Police advised the driver and the passenger that he detected the odor of marijuana coming from their vehicle and advised them that it would be easier and quicker to hand over the marijuana. The passenger turned over a baggie containing a small amount of marijuana. The passenger was cited and released.

Police also responded to an alarm drop, a road hazard, a possible domestic dispute, a juvenile smoking, and numerous properties found open.

Terrace Park Police provided mutual aid to the Milford Police Department, and the Newtown Police Department.

Memorial Day

By Reilly McGonagil

What is Memorial Day? If you search it on the internet, you will receive a hollow dictionary definition. Perhaps, "the last Monday in May, on which those who died in active military service are remembered." To some, we are not remembering people, but are remembering mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters. These losses have cost us all much suffering. Before I wrote this essay, I believed that Memorial Day was just a parade, candy, and a hot morning on The Green listening to a sixth grader recite an essay. I now know the real significance of Memorial Day.

On Memorial Day, most of us will honor all of the people who have died in any war throughout time. Some even honor people who haven't died in a war, but have served in the military. Whatever the reason, everyone recognizes Memorial Day for one reason- To remember. To remember the pain and suffering. To remember the day when you found out that your loved one was never coming home. And most of all, to remember your friend or family member that never made it home.

As many of you may know, Memorial Day was originally called Decoration Day. It was first observed on May 30th, 1868 when flowers were placed on the graves of Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia. Waterloo, New York, was officially pronounced the birthplace of Memorial Day. Memorial Day was officially proclaimed on May 5th, 1868, by General John Alexander Logan. By 1890 Memorial Day was recognized by all of the Northern states. The Southern states did not celebrate a specific day for remembering, but each state had their own day set aside. It has become tradition for one to wear a red poppy on this special day. A poem by Moina Michael, "We cherish too, the poppy red/ That grows on fields where valor led/ It seems to signal to the skies/ That blood of heroes never dies." is the reason people wear red poppies on Memorial Day.

I asked my father, who was in the Navy for 7 years, if he knew anyone that I could write my Memorial Day essay about. I expected him to tell me about a Great-Great Uncle of mine that died in a long-ago war. Instead, he told me about Matt Maupin who graduated from the school where my dad works. Matt Maupin was captured by enemy forces April 9th, 2004, while patrolling at night in Iraq. 10 months later, when the other soldiers fighting with him were arriving home, Matt Maupin was still missing. He was seen alive on one video, so the Army had to assume that he was still alive. While waiting for word about their son, Keith and Carolyn Maupin started the Clermont County chapter of the Yellow Ribbon Campaign. The Yellow Ribbon program is designed to help students avoid out-of-pocket fees associated with education programs that are above and beyond the GI Bill tuition benefit. After two years of suffering, Keith and Carolyn Maupin were notified that their son's body was found north of Baghdad. If you are ever near the new Jungle Jim's in Eastgate, drive by the Glen Este High School bus garage and see the memorial set up for Matt Maupin. A section of route 275 near Wards Corner Rd. is designated "SSGT Matt Maupin Memorial Highway" in his memory.

From now on when you see a yellow ribbon, remember all of those who have served in the military and all of those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice to guarantee our freedom as Americans. Let the yellow ribbon be a reminder that we should remember all year, not just the final Monday of May. The true definition will forever remain in my heart, as it will, I hope, for all of you.

Reilly McGonagil reads her winning essay at the Memorial Day commemoration on the Village Green. Each year, the Kiwanis Club of Mariemont selects winning essays contributed by sixth grade students in our district that best explain "What Memorial Day Means to Me."

Power of the Pen places 4th in state competition

By Josephine McKerrick, Mariemont City Schools

Congratulations to the Mariemont Junior High School Power of the Pen team, which placed 4th place in the state of Ohio at a competition in late May. There were more than 6,000 writers from all over the state and the competition narrowed it down to 700 writers at Wooster College. Lindsey Imhoff went to the final power round and placed in the top 50. Erin Cash received a Best of the Best from Regional and will be published in the book of winners next fall. Cohen Bailey, Ellie Kapcar, Grace Haffner, Kayla Dewey, Erin Ramey and Alex

Wilson also did an amazing job representing Mariemont Junior High, and Nathalie Weiss was our official runner!

At the regional competition at The School of Creative & Performing Arts, the 7th and 8th grade Mariemont Junior High School received the first place team award. There were 42 schools at the Regional competition and approximately 110 writers per grade level. In addition, both 7th and 8th received 1st place grade level team awards. Individual writers placed as well.

Solicitor: The Martin/Marietta appeals were granted an extension to file appeals with the Court. Village Solicitor Bob Malloy noted that the original decision still stands and feels that Martin/Marietta is searching for appeal items.

Life Squad: The EMS unit completed 10 runs since the last Council meeting and all current providers have been recertified in CPR. The volunteers attended a disaster drill for crisis management with over 300 "patients" treated. Chief John Maggard then recognized the service of Anne Bauer as the Village's Training Officer for the past 10 years even after she moved from the Village. Gregg Siegfried will be the new Training Officer. Buildings and Grounds: A resolution was presented to the Council and passed to appoint Mark Castor as the Village Urban Forester.

Finance: A resolution was presented and passed to authorize payment to Thomas Longano as magistrate for the Village. A third reading was presented of the resolution to declare it necessary to levy an additional tax in excess of the ten mill limitation for general operating purposes and requesting the county auditor certify the total current tax valuation of the Village and the dollar amount of revenue that would be generated by 2.5 mills.

Public Works: A resolution was presented to adopt and accept the rules and regulations for the Hamilton County Storm Water District.

Public Safety: Chairman Stefan Olson requested that families remind bikers to obey all traffic signs and that all motorized scooter operators must wear helmets and are NOT allowed to use the Village streets. The Importance of ... Design in Communications

When was the last time you came across a really ugly document — one that caught your attention because it was such a mess? It's probably been quite some time. That's because desktop publishing has given people the power to create all kinds of documents, from marketing and design pieces to more utilitarian forms and documents, using tools like typography and text line justification.

Desktop publishing has raised the bar for appearance. Today's ugly documents really stand out when compared to those that are well-designed. In fact, design is now so important that it is integral to document creation. A well-designed document is more likely to be read in part or entirely by the intended audience and increase reader comprehension. Good design also reflects well on the individual, business, or organization presenting the document, lending credibility and a sense of professionalism.

Five Principles of Design

Principle 1: Good design has a purpose. Consider what the document is intended to accomplish, what the audience expects, the image you want to portray, and what reaction you want to invoke. This will guide all your decisions — the typeface, the color palette, and the layout itself.

Principle 2: Good design makes things simple. A good design makes a difficult concept understandable by guiding the reader to the important points, illustrating them, and reinforcing what needs to be learned. This improves reader comprehension and makes persuasive documents more powerful.

Principle 3: Good design holds the reader's attention. Engage the reader immediately with an eye-catching headline, graphic image, photographs, white space, or unusual layout. Then guide the reader through the important points so nothing critical is missed.

Principle 4: Good design has an underlying logic. Readers will see not only the text, graphics, and photographs on the page, they will react to the underlying organizational structure of the covered. Mariemont applied pressure all over the field in the second half and cruised to a 16-9 victory, advancing to the state final for the third time in seven years.

The Warriors faced a strong opponent in the championship game. Rocky River also advanced to the state final the year before, losing to DeSales in that game 8-6. They went into this game with a 15-2 overall record and a roster full of accomplished players. Their goalie was an All-American, and four more of their players were named first team all-state. Three of those five were recognized as players of the year in Division II at their respective positions (goalie, defense, LSM/specialist).

Mariemont opened strong and went about their business building a 5-0 lead. Like DeSales, Rocky River did not play well from behind and the Warriors steadily ground out control of the game. They outplayed the Pirates in every aspect of the game and won handily, 10-6. The boys celebrated on the field, the fans in the stands. Coach Peterson got drenched. Macko Saffin was named offensive MVP of the championship game and Sam Long the defensive MVP. The entire squad played great team ball in the final.

The Warriors have built a tradition of excellence and sportsmanship in lacrosse, and now should be considered one of the premiere programs in the state. Few athletes in the history of Mariemont sports know what it feels like to win a state championship. Now a second group of young men in the community have from playing this sport, and more will have the opportunity to do so in the future.

Because this lacrosse program is in beast mode. Warrior Nation is providing tremendous community support. We have great coaches who care. The most potent attack line I've ever seen at Mariemont will return intact next season. The defense and midfield are deep and talented. The JV squad is one of the best in the city. The Bulldogs are hungry and watching from the stands. The future's so bright we're going to need shades.

I've thought this through.

When I chose to move to Deupree House in 2009 I didn't make that important decision based on some "special deal". I made it because living at Deupree House is the real deal. An incredible staff, over 60 years of experience, and I'll never be asked to leave for financial reasons. After all, when you're looking for value over the long term, you get what you pay for. We provide the options, you make the choices.

 Deupree House in Hyde park is a community of Episcopal Retirement Homes, where all faiths are welcome.
