

Waterline Project Ready for Review

By Sue Porter

Connecting Terrace Park's water main along the western side of Elm Road will cost about $470,700, according to Police Chief/Administrator Jerry Hayhow, who presented an engineering study to village council at its Oct. 11 meeting. Mayor Tom Tepe said the construction project is a necessary safety upgrade that will close the loop in the village water main system and ensure adequate service is consistently available. Tepe said Terrace Park officials will ultimately ask the Village of Indian Hill, which provides water to Terrace Park, to maintain the system. Residents will be invited to learn more about the project and express their views at meetings hosted by council's finance and public works committees. Dates for the meetings have not yet been set.

In other business: Bruce Long, who has lived at 810 Lexington Ave., for more than 40 years, requested postponement of the Oct. 31 deadline for removal of vehicles and other items residents store at the village maintenance center. He asked council to reconsider banning all public storage and offered options to address liability and management concerns. To bolster his case, Long presented a village document he signed 20 years ago when he first began storing his 4x6-foot utility trailer at the site. He recommended restrictions on what can be stored, a current registration document and a "hold harmless" agreement. Mayor Tepe did not assign Long's request for review and there were no further comments on the issue at the meeting.

Two resolutions were passed that transferred money in the 2022 appropriations budget to cover increased employee medical costs and give the tree maintenance budget a $25,000 boost. A third resolution was passed to affirm alignment of the millage rates collected by Hamilton County with Terrace Park's expected tax revenue. Another resolution authorized the purchase of a 2023 Ford F-150 truck at a cost of $48,490 to replace a fire department pumper. Administrator Hayhow said the pumper will be sold at auction and proceeds will be used to outfit the truck with fire-fighting equipment.

Council approved an ordinance to remove 40-50 trees Village Arborist Mark Castator has declared unhealthy or a potential danger. Regina Sharp, chair of the buildings

Dear Neighbors,

With Halloween in the rear view mirror and winter on its way, there's no doubt that the holidays are just around the corner here in Terrace Park. It's been a glorious autumn and the old trees around our village put on a fantastic show this year with their best colors hanging on for weeks. But now it's time to look ahead to Thanksgiving, when all of our college kids are home, alumni games fill Drackett Field, and the windows in the houses are warm and glowing with football, turkey, and family. Here at the Village Views I am certainly thankful for another year with all of you, reporting on the accomplishments and milestones of you and your children and looking toward the great things to come here in the little village by the river.

After Thanksgiving wraps up, it is just a week before the Lighting of the Green/Luminaria Night comes on the first Sunday in December. If you're new to the village, this is the much anticipated kick-off to the holidays in Terrace Park with Kindervelt selling luminary kits to decorate the front of your house on the same night that we all head to the Village Green to sing carols and see the village tree lit for the first time. There's even a good chance the big man in red himself might make an appearance! New this year, the Holiday Home Decorating Contest will be on the same night! Details to come on TPList in the coming weeks.

You can read more about all of that, catch up on the village council, and read about the return of the great pumpkin. It's all here in this issue of the Village Views. So until next month I remain,

Your Editor,
Steve Early

Veterans Day Celebration at Terrace Park Elementary

Veterans are invited to attend a celebration at TPE starting with light refreshments at 9:30 AM. A school-wide assembly will begin at 10AM in the gym. If you have a friend or family member who is a veteran, please invite them to the program. Our school community will honor our veterans with songs, poems and presentations. Please contact the office staff at TPE at 513-272-7700 if you have questions.

The Great Pumpkin Returns!

It has become a village Halloween favorite over the past few years, and the Great Pumpkin Guess is back! Every October the Dickinson family brings a gargantuan gourd to the front steps of their home on the corner of Stanton and Lexington Avenues and the children (and adults) of Terrace Park submit their guesses on the weight of the portly pumpkin. The true number, and prizes for the closest guesses are all revealed on Halloween night.

This year's closest guess was Bizzy Simon, who guessed 680 pounds. The correct weight was 687 pounds!

Dickinson will not share the secret location where these giants are grown, only that cooler temperatures and higher-than-average rainfall made 2022 an ideal year for growing. In fact, the largest pumpkin ever recorded was grown this year in upstate New York. The record holder tipped the scales at 2,554 pounds! While you may not find one quite that large on Lexington Avenue this year, you will have a chance to grow your own because along with candy on Halloween night, the Dickinsons will be handing out seeds from past pumpkins of preposterous proportions.

And what happens to the pumpkin after Halloween? "It gets chopped up into 30-50 pound blocks and taken into the woods," Jon Dickinson told the Village Views, "Many animals eat pumpkins so don't ever spray them with bleach to make them last longer."

TPE Halloween Parade

Stepping Stones Raises Over $101K At Sporting Clays Tournament

Stepping Stones hosted its 6th annual Sporting Clays Tournament on October 14, 2022, at the Sycamore Pheasant Club in Loveland. The event netted more than $101,000 to benefit year-round programming for children, teens and adults with disabilities.

Attendees hit the course for a clay shoot featuring 75 targets and a flurry game. Supporters raised money for the organization by participating in a raffle and a live auction with premier packages. Mark Hill, Matthew Hill, Ryan Moeller, and Barry Oppelt won the team competition and Mike Haehnle was the winning individual shooter. Platinum sponsors for the event included the Austin E. Knowlton Foundation and PLK Communities. Gold sponsors included Johnson Investment

Counsel, Seasons Best Landscaping and the Wyler Family Foundation.

"We are so thankful to everyone who came to support Stepping Stones and their much-needed programs," said event co-chairs Peter Borchers and Brian Folke. "We look forward to seeing everyone again at next year's event!"

Stepping Stones is an impact agency serving more than 700 people with disabilities in day and overnight programs that increase independence and promote inclusion. Founded in 1963, the agency provides educational, recreational and social programs at locations in Batavia, Indian Hill, Norwood and Western Hills. During the evening of 9/27, an officer was dispatched to the area of Elm Avenue and Wooster Pike because a horse was running loose in the area. The officer quickly located the horse, mounted Seabiscuit, and raced it back to the farm while dodging all the white squirrels. Just kidding, that would have been stunning. The officer arrived at the farm and the horse had already been located. It did not stick around for long as it was way pasture bedtime.

News from the TP Historical Society

On Wednesday, October 12, TPHS was delighted to host the ladies of the Terrace Park Kindervelt chapter in our newly remodelled facilities. There was much interest in our museum, art gallery and archives room, especially our collection of stories and photos of Terrace Park homes over the years. We would like to thank Katy Chisholm for being the catalyst for the event.

Visitors are always welcome during our office hours Thursdays from 1-4pm on the lower level of Saint Thomas Church below the choir room. (If that is not convenient, let us know and we can schedule a different time.) You can learn more about us at tphistoricalsociety.org, and we are also on Facebook and Instagram.

A Look Back

What was happening in Terrace Park in 1883? Although, the village was still 10 years away from incorporation, according to the July 30, 1883 Cincinnati Enquirer there was already lots of visiting and dancing going on around here. When someone "left for Milton, KY" and it was newsworthy, you can imagine how quiet our little village was back then...

TERRACE PARK

James Douglas, Jun. paid our town a flying visit Saturday. The Misses Ross of Cumminsville, are the guests of Mrs. Howe.

Messrs. Elton and Frank Galloway left for Milton, Ky., Saturday

Mrs. J.L. Galloway is visiting relatives at Columbus and Springfield.

Rev. Joseph T. Willets and wife are visiting the Hon. O.J. Willets at St. Louis, Mich.

Mr. A. Waldemeyer, Jun. and sister, Miss Laura, of Newport, Ky., are the guests of Mrs. C. Kaufman.

Terrace Park is one of the most attractive towns located on the Little Miami Railroad. The streets are regularly and handsomely laid out, and the Park is celebrated for the beauty of its private residences.

The party given by the Terrace Park Dancing School was quite a success. Among the many present were the Misses Bacon, Stella Galloway, Ruth Stabler, Laura Moore, Julia Lemmon, Kate Lemmon, Julia Barr, and Miss Waldemeyer, of Newport, Ky.; Messrs. Leaf, Stabler, Galloway, Iuen, Lemmon, Bacon and many others.

and grounds committee, said Castator has catalogued the village's 2,800 trees by species and health to create a maintenance plan. In the coming years, the village will be replacing diseased emerald ash trees and about 900 maple trees that were planted 50 years ago and have reached their life expectancy.

In their monthly reports: Mayor Tepe said he will be hosting an open house in November to introduce new residents to village services and community organizations. Administrator Hayhow said leaf pick-up will begin the week of Oct. 17, temporarily making brush pick-up a secondary priority. He added that the Ohio Department of Transportation will open bids in May 2023 for repaving Wooster Pike through the village in the spring of 2024.

EMS Chief John Maggard said the department's pancake supper fundraiser, on hiatus the past two years due to Covid, is returning Sunday, Nov. 13, at St Thomas Episcopal Church.

He added that three volunteers have signed-up for the next EMS training, which will be held two times weekly from Jan. 10 to May 19. He welcomes additional volunteers to the class because the department is currently short-staffed. Fire Chief Stephen Dronsfield said four new recruits will be completing fire-fighting classes in December. He reminds residents to make sure their chimneys are clean before burning firewood and to routinely check their smoke detector batteries.
