Police Force Moving To Four-Day Workweek

Submitted by Sue Porter

Though Terrace Park offers competitive wages to its police officers, retention is an issue Village Council hopes to resolve by offering more desirable hours.

As Village Administrator and Police Chief Jerry Hayhow explained at council's May 14 meeting, newcomers to the six-person force typically leave for jobs that offer 10- or 12-hour shifts rather than the eight-hour shifts necessary for a small force to provide 24/7 protection. Compounding the issue is a widespread decline in police academy graduates, resulting in a smaller candidate pool and fierce competition among municipalities for new hires.

"When you have so few officers, they may be working 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and then returning to work midnight to 8 a.m.," Hayhow said. "I have one officer who works two day shifts, two midnight shifts and one afternoon shift in his five-day workweek. It wears on you."

Upon the recommendation of Councilmember Lauren Ingebritson's Public Safety Committee, council approved the hiring of a seventh police officer so that four 10-hour shifts with three consecutive days off can become the weekly norm and stop the chronic turnover.

"Safety is our brand as a community," Mayor Tom Tepe said. "We want the best and brightest, and we want to provide the best package so officers will come and stay. It is a cost but something worthwhile."

In other action, council approved a $26,600 revision to the appropriations budget for resurfacing on Marian Lane to eliminate a water problem and pavement repairs on Princeton, Poplar, Stanton, Franklin, Miami and Park. Council also authorized an agreement with the JK Meurer Company for annual street maintenance not to exceed $74,810.

In their monthly reports:

Mayor Tepe said the recent open house for new residents received tremendous support from village volunteer organizations and that he will host another orientation session in the fall. He also issued his annual Arbor Day proclamation, praised the maintenance crew for their spring

Dear Neighbors,

June is here and ushering in another summer of lazy, warm days and fun in Terrace Park. It's perhaps the best season of all here in the village, so catch up on all your TP news in this issue before you hit the pool. This month we are taking a look back at the Flying Pig Marathon, sharing news on lacrosse champs, Kiwanis award winners, and this year's Arbor Day Celebration. In short, your neighbors have been as busy as ever!

We are also sending village-wide congratulations to the Class of 2024. They've come a long way from Mrs. Merten and Mrs. Koehler's kindergarten classes and we couldn't be more proud. We know there will be lots to report on as your great adventures begin, and the Village Views will be here to report on it all.

Last month we asked readers to consider making a small donation to the future of the Village Views and the support from this community has been amazing! Donations of all sizes have been received, some with kind notes about the paper and your feelings for it. I can't thank you enough! If you would still like to contribute, you can find more info about that in this issue.

Well, that's all for now, I have to get a good chair by the lap pool so I'm off to the swim club. Until next month I remain,

Your Editor,

Steve Early

Top 4 in State

Congrats to the 7th and 8th grade boys lacrosse team who had an amazing finish in the Ohio Middle School lacrosse tournament last month! The team was seeded 7 in Division 1 and beat both the 2nd and 3rd seeds. The team lost to first seed Junior Crusaders who went on to win the state title.

TP First Graders Help Celebrate 152nd Arbor Day

Terrace Park Elementary School first graders with their teachers, Kevin Maness and Megan Buchman, gathered on April 26 at the outdoor classroom for an Arbor Day celebration. The kids shared the importance of trees as they give us paper and building materials, air to breathe, nesting for birds and shaded shelter, as well as fruit, nuts and berries for all to eat. Garden Club member Amy Evans told the class about Julius Sterling Morton and his wife, Caroline, who moved from Detroit, Michigan to 160 acres on the treeless plains of Nebraska City and how they started planting a variety of trees and shrubs. Mr. Morton was the editor of the first newspaper in Nebraska where he was able to spread his knowledge of trees and his love of nature and wildlife with his interested readers. The community held the first ever Arbor Day on April 10, 1872 with 1000 school children leading the parade. The tradition quickly spread and, within

Terrace Park Woman’s Club Honors Fifth Grade Students

Each spring the Terrace Park Woman’s Club honors several fifth grade students for their excellence in Language Arts throughout their years spent at Terrace Park Elementary School. These students are selected by their teachers. We are proud to announce that the 2024 winners are Blake Kramer and Carter Van Treeck . Their names have been engraved on a plaque which is on display in the hall of the school. A book, marked in recognition of their award, has been added to the school library. Autographed copies of Mummies Exposed and Bones Unearthed, both written by Kerrie Hollihan, have been purchased. Each student received a gift certificate from The Bookmatters Bookstore, located in Milford to add to his private collection, and a gift certificate to Coolest Toys on Earth. By honoring these students and recognizing their achievements in the field of language arts, our hope is that all young students will enjoy reading throughout their lives. Congratulations to Blake and Carter!

Councilmember Pax Lindell said his Public Works Committee has recommend a wait-and-see approach to the electric aggregation that neighboring communities such as Mariemont and Fairfax are offering residents. The theory is that rates would go down if everyone within the community bought electricity from the same source; however, Lindell said there is no guarantee of this and the complex implementation process requires a ballot issue.

Administrator Hayhow said the Department of Transportation has begun improvements to Wooster Pike through Terrace Park earlier than expected due to bridge construction in Fairfax. He asked residents to be patient with traffic delays for prep work, resurfacing, installation of safety reflectors and striping.

Summer at St. Thomas

Submitted by Sonya Geers

Summer is upon us. Days are longer and school is out. However, that does not mean the events at St. Thomas Episcopal Church are slowing down! The Summer Sunday Child Formation Program begins June 14th and yes, that is Father's Day. We will be celebrating with a Dads and Dogs Food Truck. Everyone is welcome to attend the 10:15am service and then join us outside for a complimentary gourmet dog to honor our fathers. Jill's Food Truck and Findley Market sausages will be back this year by popular demand. It will be a great day to check out the church in our village!

We are also introducing our Summer Family Series of events! First up is Red's Baseball Night on Tuesday, June 25th at 7:10pm. We have reserved a section in the Sun Deck of Great American Ballpark. It's the perfect place to catch a homerun ball by rookie sensation Elly De La Cruz! You can grab a discounted ticket by scanning the QR code on the flyer in this paper. If you sign up before June 7th, you will receive a custom tshirt for the game, from the church for free! You can also purchase a ticket after that date without a tshirt. Everyone in the Village is invited to join us.

As we stated before, our Summer Sunday Program begins June 14th and goes every Sunday from 9:15-11:15 am with lots of exciting activities for the children. We will learn about God's Creations, starting with planting a small garden for the kids to tend. We will raise butterflies and become bird watchers, all while taking in the wonder of nature. As always, ALL children ages 3-12 are welcome. Sign up or just come in for a visit!

Be on the lookout for information about other Summer Family activities that St. Thomas will be hosting, including a Zoo-fari at the Cincinnati Zoo in July and a Movie Night in August. Check out our website for many more adult activities and groups to join. Whether it is your first visit, or you are a regular at St. Thomas, our doors are always open to you and your family. See you soon!

A road better traveled together.

Caregiving is difficult and isolating. As Mom’s care needs changed, juggling the demands of running both her household and care became harder.

A woman at church suggested that I contact Marjorie P. Lee. She told me about their specialized training for their team members and how they created the Center for Memory Support and Inclusion to help those with dementia and their families. The team supports me as well – whether it is to vent when I get frustrated, grieve the loss of Mom’s memory, or share a new way to approach her. Although the journey of dementia is difficult, with the Marjorie P. Lee team, I am not alone. We are doing this together.

Schedule a tour today of our Memory Care households by contacting Jenn Schlotbom at 513.533.5000 or by email at jschlotbom@erslife.org. To learn more, visit marjorieplee.com/memorycare or scan the QR code.
